Message from the Principal

It has been an exciting time for our 5th graders as they officially began their transition to Sage Park Middle School! Students have started visiting the middle school for building tours and informational sessions to help them prepare for their next big adventure. Back at our school, the Tech Department has been hosting grade-level visits to our traveling planetarium. These immersive sessions are tailored to specific curriculum standards, giving students a unique, hands-on look at the wonders of science and astronomy.

We are also proud to celebrate the achievements of our students; on February 27th, we held our Student of the Month assembly to honor those who have shown outstanding dedication and success. Looking ahead to next week, we are thrilled to welcome the APEX fundraising program, which will be working with our PTO to raise money for future school events. Finally, we will be joining schools across the nation to celebrate the joy of literacy during our "Read Across America" festivities!

3rd Grade Update

Humanities: Students have been reading about Susan B. Anthony's childhood. Third graders wrote a new chapter in the book, using dialogue to describe what Susan would have said to her grandparents. During discussion, they are referring back to the story for details. Soon, students will read about what Susan does to become grown-up and independent.

STEM: Students are excited to work with fractions! They are identifying fractions on a number line and are beginning to understand how number lines can be used to find equivalent fractions. Third graders are also continuing to memorize multiplication facts and are currently working on the 6's.

Parenting Adolescents Toward Healthier Ways (PATHWays)

School avoidance is a complex issue that involves the child who struggles with attendance, parents, and school systems.

The Anxiety Disorders Center is researching a treatment program that will focus on assisting parents in addressing the problem of school avoidance. This research will examine the use of a daily parent diary during treatment to track time in school, sleeping, using screens, and engaged in physical activity.

The PATHWays program aims to help parents:

- Understand how accommodations for anxiety may contribute to school avoidance.
- Learn ways to reduce accommodations.
- Create rules/structure around sleep, screen time, and activity.

Parents/guardians of students (ages 12-18, grades 6 -12) who are struggling with school attendance may be eligible for this research program.

If you know a family that would be interested in our program or would like more information about our program, please contact the Anxiety Disorders Center at (860) 545-7707.
