General Contract

CONGRATULATIONS and WELCOME to HV United VBC

We, the parents/guardians of the child we are registering on this site, have accepted a position in the club through the remittance of our deposit. We agree to pay HV United VBC club dues (that you agree to, i.e. paid in full or a set payment plan). We have carefully read the following information concerning the policies of HV United VBC.

Payment Policies:

- We understand that club dues include pre-scheduled group training, use of equipment and facilities, uniforms, teambuilding, end of season banquet, coaches fees and admin fees.

- Travel, AAU/USAV memberships, non-mandatory apparel, and optional group or private training is not included in the club dues.

- We understand that we are solely responsible for all fees per the fee schedule.

- We understand that ALL payments including: tryouts, season deposit, and club dues are NON-REFUNDABLE.

- We understand that once a deposit is made to accept a position on a team, if my daughter is unable to play at any time or for any reason (injury, illness, scheduling conflicts, etc.) that I remain liable for my daughter's total club season dues. Outstanding balances are due within fourteen (14) days of my daughter's departure from the club.

- We understand that if a violation of the general contract or the team rules & policies contract results in dismissal from the club that I remain liable for my daughter's total club season dues. Outstanding balances are due within fourteen(14) days of my daughter's departure from the club.

- We understand that if any payments are late or in default, a late fee will incur, and my daughter will not be allowed to attend any practices or tournaments until payments are up to date. The only exception is if you have made arrangements with the club director ahead of time.

- We understand we will be held liable for any costs associated with returned payments, collection of unpaid fees, or any legal action that results as a breach of this contract.

- Payments can be made by credit card, cash, or check.

- Credit card payments should be made online at huronvallyrec.com
- Checks payments should be made to: Huron Valley Schools

General Policies:

- We understand the risk of potential injury that may occur as part of the normal participation in this sport.
- We understand that each player is guaranteed some play per match in pool play of each tournament. Playing time during playoffs or bracket play is not guaranteed.
- We understand that if a missed practice is not communicated to the coaches in advance, playing time for one match at the next tournament is forfeited.
- We understand that playing positions are not guaranteed.
- We understand that HV United VBC reserves the right to move players and/or coaches among teams in the event extenuating circumstances arise.

We understand the policies as outlined above. We agree to participate in the activities of the club for the entire season and will assume full financial responsibility for all of the above.
