DISCUSSION

Grant Updates

Mrs. Harrison shared the WVDE Alternative Education Grant for $250,000 – UKERU Training for a teacher from each elementary school PD, Stipends, subs, alternative education salary support. She is also working on a grant to go towards MCTEC Project. Mrs. Harrison shared she submitted the application for $500,000 from the Shott foundation to go toward the Needs Project.

Administrative Updates

Krista Kessinger – shared the Blessing in a backpack is a combination of support from our school staff and community partners. Bluefield Area: Salem United Methodist Church. LMS/PikeView Area: Lashmeet Church of God. Sun Valley School: Packs their own. Princeton Area (Silver Springs, Straley, PPS, Mercer: First United Methodist Church

Leslie Wellman – shared that after talking with principals about GoFan, tickets will be a $6.00. Posters have been sent for specific schools with QR Codes for easy purchase for fans.

Dr. Kristal Filipek – shared she is finishing up on the Certified list that is due in the beginning of October.

Tom Adkins – shared he is in communications regarding the Montcalm High School field house. The Armory issued was solved, floors were moved and installed. Timberwood is in great shape and doing a great job with the property and cleanliness.

Danielle Farmer – Mark Miller was here and took pictures for SBA Needs Grant. The culinary students did a fantastic job assisting with Friday's event. There were 150 middle school students at MCTEC to see the different things offered. We received a grant from the state to hire more personnel for the Grow Your Own.
