SHM'ALGYACK LANGUAGE CLASSES

ANNETTE ISLAND SCHOOL DISTRICT

UNIVERSITY of ALASKA SOUTHEAST

Preserving culture through language offered in partnership with Annette Island School District (AISD) & University of Alaska Southeast (UAS) for Beginning Tsimshian I & II classes this fall and spring semesters

Beginning Tsimshian I and II with Shu Guyna, Donna May Roberts (non credit or for-credit options)
Classes meet twice a week on Mondays and Wednesdays

Learn Shm'algyack, the traditional language of Tsimshian people:
- gather comprehension & speaking skills
- experience the sound system and alphabet
- build vocabulary and learn phrases

Partnership Details

Memorandum of Agreement
- Meet in person for online Beginning Tsimshian class
- 6:00 - 8:00 AK time MW in Room 130 at Metlakatla High School
- No cost to community members & students enrolled not for credit
- Scholarships available for students earning college credit

UAS offers Indigenous Language Speaking Certificate

Series includes:
- Beginning Tsimshian with Shu Guyna, Donna May Roberts
- Intermediate Tsimshian with Kshm Lck'sggan, Ruth Hallows
- Advanced Tsimshian with Shiggoap, Alfie Price

www.uas.alaska.edu

Registration assistance available for all classes at AISD District Office
Metlakatla, AK 99926

GGALSHIM HO-W!
Call to dinner while building Metlakatla

from Russell Hayward's Easy Lessons in Shm'algyack