Mrs. Debra Kay Victory

Mrs. Victory was born in Sallisaw, Oklahoma in a family of four brothers and two sisters. After graduation from Central High School in Hanson, OK, she worked for four years at Phoenix Federal Savings and Loan before going to college at Northeastern State University in Tahlequah, OK, to receive a bachelor's degree in mathematics.

Mrs. Victory's husband, Kenneth, is a basketball coach at Sharon-Mutual Public Schools. Her son, Travis, is a freshman at SWOSU in Weatherford, and her daughter, Tau'Mee, is in sixth grade at Sharon-Mutual Public Schools.

She and her family attend the Sharon Baptist Church, and she enjoys reading, gardening, walking, golfing with her husband and watching her children and students play basketball.

Before coming to Arnett High School, Mrs. Victory taught at Seminole, Kremlin-Hillsdale, and Muskogee Public Schools. She states "Teaching is an exciting and rewarding career. Everyday is an adventure, and I am constantly learning from my students."

Congratulations Mrs. Victory on being selected as Arnett's 1999-2000 Teacher of the Year!

The 2000 Wildcat staff produced the 52nd volume of the Arnett Wildcat. The press run was eighty-five copies consisting of eighty-eight pages and a four page color tip-in. All pages were printed on matte white paper. Trim size is 7"X10". The black and gold litho cover was designed at the workshop in Weatherford, OK.

Taylor Publishing Co. in El Paso, TX printed the book with Tom Quaid serving as our yearbook representative.

Janel Blaylock, Stacia Dowler, and Mandy Smith served as editors. Other staff members included Kimberly Bayless, Katie Maxfield, Jenny Waters, Candace Denson, and Jeannie Hunter. The advisor for the fourth year was Miss Kandee Almgren.

For the price of $25, Yearbook sales ran from February 28 to March 10. Revenue from ads, fundraisers, coronation voting boxes, and book sales helped to cover the production cost of the book.

The year 2000 was greeted with celebrations across the globe, including a fantastic fireworks display at the Eiffel Tower and religious ceremonies in Jerusalem. Looking back on 1999, we see a year filled with hope for the future, but also a year plagued by war and natural disaster. The conflict in Serbia kept the world on the edge of its seat, while earthquakes, tornadoes and winter storms focused our attention on international relief efforts. In 1999-2000, we also said goodbye to some of the world's most beloved celebrities including John F. Kennedy Jr., Walter Payton and Charles Schulz.

WEATHER

The century came to a close with an upsurge of natural disasters. Hurricane Floyd caused $4.2 billion worth of damage on the East Coast while snowstorms crippled regions of the Northeast and Midwest. Internationally, earthquakes killed thousands in Turkey, Columbia and Taiwan.

MILLENNIUM

While some stockpiled Y2K supplies and safeguarded their computers against the "millennium bug," others rang in the new century with fireworks, parties and religious celebrations. While merchandise branding the date 01.01.00 filled stores, millennium countdown clocks were seen everywhere from billboards to post offices.

DISCOVERY

The Hubble Telescope, Earth's orbiting eye to the heavens, beamed back pictures of new planets and nebulas, while kinks in the NASA Mars Polar Lander mission delayed hopes of discovering more about the mysterious red planet.

GOODBYE

As we said goodbye to the century, we also said goodbye to some of the world's most beloved celebrities. John F. Kennedy Jr. was killed in a private plane crash while Charles Schulz passed away on the night before his last "Peanuts" comic strip was to be published in Sunday papers around the world. Sports legends Walter Payton, Joe DiMaggio and Tom Landry also left us this year.
