

The Cub 1967

Our School

Our school is a place where learning is a joy.

We have a wide range of subjects to study and
many activities to enjoy.

Our teachers are experienced and our staff are friendly.

We have a modern building with many facilities.

Our school is a place
where everyone can achieve.

Our School

On a shady street our schoolhouse stands,
Mid grounds well kept by faithful hands.
Its doors swing wide to the noisy throng,
That hurry through the whole year long.
The shining trophies that line the walls,
Are a tribute to those once within these halls.

We remember each teacher, not one is forgot,
Some could endure us, and others could not.
Each year green gawky frosh enter here,
And with fear and trembling begin their career.
Through the halls noisy sophomores voices ring,
Proving that "a little learning is a dangerous thing."

The juniors wisdom is quite beyond belief,
Great things to the world they'll surely bequeath.
The seniors have learned there's a lot they don't know,
So must study and work before into life they go.
They have chosen this motto upon their leaving--
"Let each man become all he's capable of being."

As Seniors of 1967 we dedicate the '67 Cub to Mr. Carl Swanson. We feel that in the three years he has taught here he has brought character to our school. He has tried with great courage and strength to bring out the best qualities of our class through his efforts to make our class play a success.

Carl Swanson has been a great asset to the school by taking the role of advisor of the winning debate and declam teams. His vivid presentations of literature and the English language has quickened the interest of his students.

We dedicate this to you, "Swans," to show our heartfelt gratitude and appreciation.

CUSTODIANS: John Giesler, Mae Rademacher

Mrs. Mae Rademacher went to her closet
To fetch poor John some brooms
When she got there the closet was bare
So litter cluttered the rooms.

Edith had a little bus
In various shades of yellow
And everywhere that Edith went
She picked up little fellows.

BUS DRIVERS: Rev. Svere Skurdal, Oliver Sandine, Edith Sandine, Pete White

COOKS: Carol Breneman, Ethel Bartling, Dayle Landers

Hi diddle diddle
The cooks and their kittle
Carol cooks and the light of the moon
And Ethel had laughed to see such sports
And Dale ran away with the spoon.

FAREWELL

Four years is a long time

--too long to forget.

We look around and ask

--where did it go?

We worked, we played

--but for four years?

Then we look the other way

--into tomorrow.

Suddenly we're not so tall

as we thought we were

And not so smart.

But we find that somehow

We learned a decisive lesson at Salem

something we wouldn't have had without our parents and teachers,

without God or religion

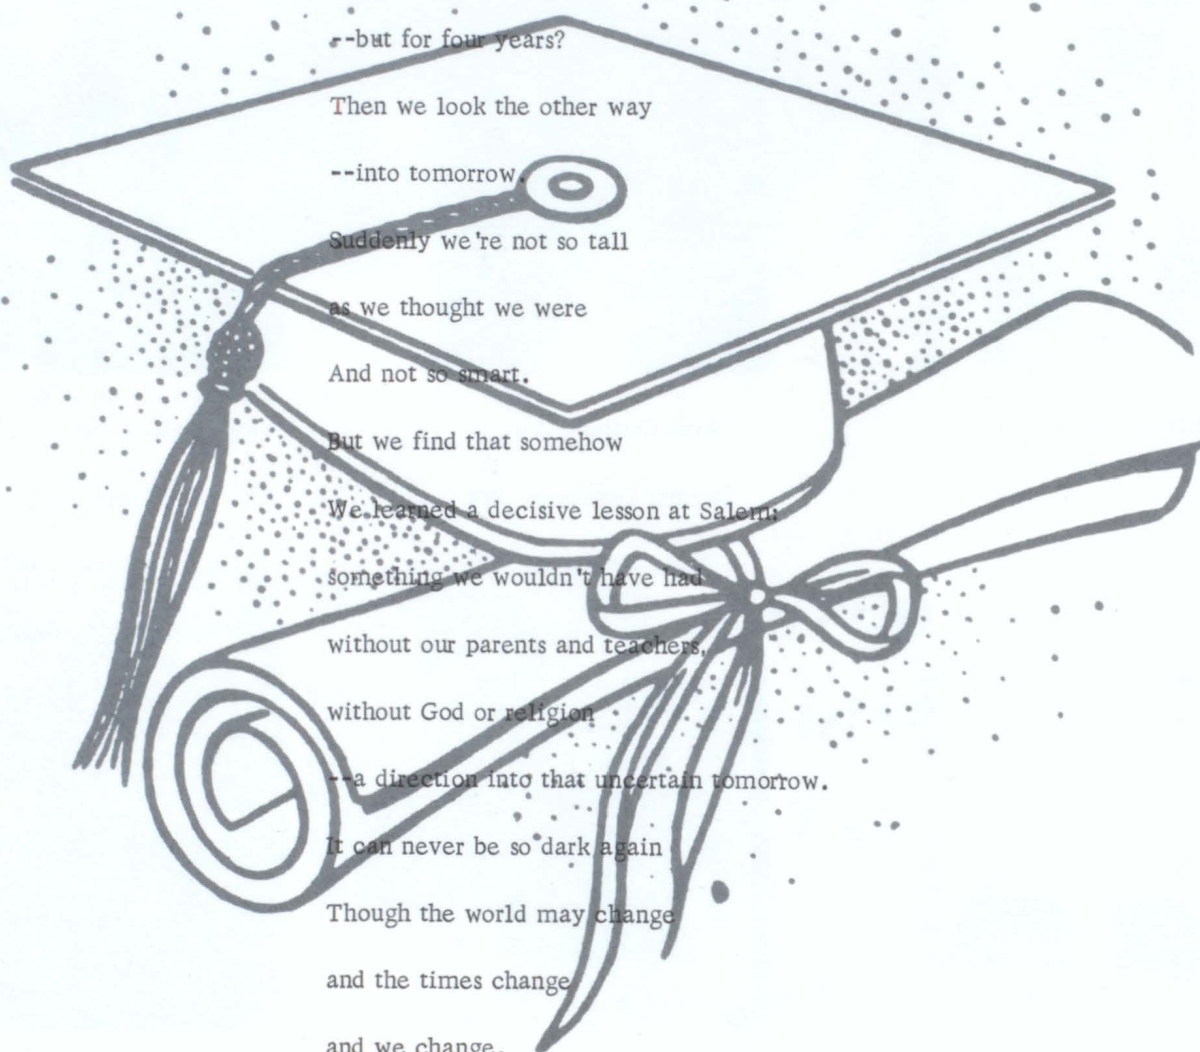

--a direction into that uncertain tomorrow.

It can never be so dark again

Though the world may change

and the times change

and we change.
