SENIOR HISTORY

A green freshman class of 28 students bravely started their first year of High in 1953. During the year we lost B. Cline, who transferred to Canova, and K. Kooistra who joined Uncle Sam. However, we gained another classmate in the person of E. Duerkson who transferred from Bridgewater. Perhaps the biggest highlight of that year was the Carnival, with A. Bies and L. Goldammer as our attendants to the King&Queen. During the course of the year we demolished 3 substitute teachers. Do you suppose we were the reason? In the summer between our freshman and sophomore years 3 girls of our class moved away. M. Larson to Ames, Iowa; E. Wiebe to Carthage; C. Wells to Canistota. As we again enrolled, in the fall of 1954, we found H. Cooper added to our class roster. She had moved to Salem from Beresford. The year began with initiation and next in line was the Carnival, when our attendants were J. Reinitz and E. Ratzlaff. In the spring of the year to the theme of "Moonlight and Roses", we served the banquet dressed in formals and suits. The year ended with the annual school picnic and the loss of one of our classmates. H. Cooper, who moved to Casper, Wyoming. As we moved into the last half of our high school days we lost J. Bruhn, L. Snethen, and R. Larson. Roger is now finishing high school in Seattle, Washington. Again the school carnival came, this year with S. Dick and D. Pearson as attendants. Later in the year we presented our unprompted play "It's Great To Be Crazy" and during play practice the school was thoroughly explored. Again in the spring prom time came. This year we put on the banquet and prom for the seniors. Our theme was "Deep Sea Paradise". This was the first year we had an orchestra for the prom and a movie and breakfast followed to make the evening a complete success. When we again enrolled in the fall of 1956 for our last year of high school the enrollment remained the same as at the end of the Junior year. This year as upper classmen we initiated the freshmen, who reminded us of our first year in high school. This year we began the idea of a real homecoming, something we had never experienced before. The events were started by the crowning of the Chief D. Pearson and Princess J. Reinitz who reigned over the two day activities aided by their attendants R. Peterson and S. Dick; E. Ratzlaff and N. Peterson. Following the coronation a snake dance and huge pep fest got us enthused for the game the following evening. The following afternoon was the parade, where we proudly presented our float with K. Kirby and C. Raue representing the seniors of '57. The winning floats paraded on the gridiron at half time. Later in the fall carnival time came again. This year the King and Queen were chosen by the number of tickets that the class sold. Of course the seniors won the ticket sale and C. Danielson and C. Raue were crowned King and Queen. One educational highlight of the year was our field trip to Pierre. We journeyed there early in March accompanied by the present junior class and spent the day watching our State Legislature in session. Following this it was play time again. This year the seniors gave a new twist to the traditional 3 act play and presented 3, one act plays instead. Oriental Gardens was the theme for the prom sponsored for us by the juniors. Now our senior skip-days to Okoboji and Baccalaureate have hurried by and soon our class of 20 students will have finished their high school days and become graduates of Salem High School. One interesting side-light concerning 4 members of our class. D. Hillman and D. Gough have gone all 12 years together. They received their grade school education in the same country school and continued on through high school together. S. Dick and G. Jones also went to school together all 12 years. They received all 12 years of their education in the Salem Public Schools.
