A FACE IN THE CROWD

The 2006-2007 yearbook theme is "A Face in the Crowd." We, the yearbook staff, chose this theme because we felt it was a good theme for this school year. We as people fail to realize at times that each and every face in the crowd has a story behind it. Crowds are made up of many faces of many people from many places. They all contribute something to the whole. The diversity of the crowd is what makes it interesting. How interesting would it be if there were 50 copies of you put together in a room? It would be repetitive and boring. Now take your neighbor, your teacher, your friend, and anybody else who you can think of and put them together. You see the difference?

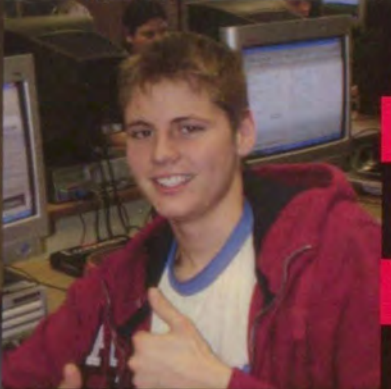

The Seniors who graduate this year will soon be joining the many faces in the crowd. They will be just another face to the many new people they meet in their new lives. This will be a big adjustment for many of them because they have been around the same core group of people for 12 years. Yes, they have made friends in other schools, but this was only one or two at a time. Going off to college, the military, or even the workforce, there will be few, if any, familiar faces to turn to for comfort and familiarity.

Memories

No matter how hard you try, 99% is still not 100%.

-Jimmy Kinslow

One of my favorite memories was during AP Chemistry. We decided to create the first and last Thanksgiving feast. We had beef and noodles, rolls, green beans, and pie. On the way back upstairs, Rachel Gick was carrying the leftover pie and, due to her clumsiness, dropped it at the top of the stairs. Cherry pie went everywhere, and our dessert for lunch was lost to the floor.

-Emily Ellsworth

My favorite memory of high school is just going to all the football, volleyball, and basketball games with all of my friends.

-Joe Hoffman

DON'T BE STUPID.
STAY FREE OF
ALL THE DRAMA.
IT'S NOT WORTH
THE BEST TIME OF
YOUR LIFE. STAY
CLOSE TO ALL OF YOUR BEST FRIENDS
-JAMIE STEVENS

Not just from Senior Year, but all the way back to kindergarten, I've enjoyed school. I have a lot of great memories with friends, and time I won't forget. Senior year is the best because it gives you the last boost of motivation to finish what you started so long ago.

-April Fulkerson

My favorite high school memory would have to be from my senior year when the big blizzard came. Stacey Jarrett, Jimie Newhart, Sam Sharp, and I all were snowed in together at my house. The first night Stacey, Sam, and I decided to sled down Camp Collum hill in our bikinis. We got some major air and ended up freezing our. The week progressed into doing absolutely nothing all week long, but it was the best time of my life. I laughed more than I ever have before.

Stacia Floyd

Stacey,
If you'd like your shoe back, I have it.

Mr. Larsh

Make sure you spend as much time with your friends as you can because you may never see half of them again.

-Amanda Stevens

Do everything all out. Never waste a day; you'll regret it when it is all over.

Oh, and don't sweat the small stuff. Have fun and Carpe Diem!

-Corey Bassett

It would take me a novel to write down all of my favorite memories from high school. I must say that my senior year has been my favorite and my friends and I have become so close this year. Whether it's camping out watching Cody Poppe pole vault over a fire, dressing up in the funniest clothes we can find and heading to the game, or just standing at our lockers telling stories and goofing off. We always had fun. Those little things are the memories that will stay with me forever.

-Jaimie Jarrell

Be yourself, and don't let others influence you into making harmful decisions.

-Matthew Burkhalter

AND

Advice

MY ADVICE WOULD BE TO MAKE THE MOST OUT OF YOUR CLASSES. EVEN IF YOU THINK THE CLASSES DON'T MATTER...THEY DO! WORK HARD AND TAKE CLASSES THAT ARE CHALLENGING. THEY WILL HELP YOU NOT ONLY IN SCHOOL, BUT IN THE REST OF YOUR LIFE. MY FAVORITE CLASSES WERE THE ONES I'VE HAD TO WORK IN, SUCH AS SPANISH AND PRE-CAL. ENJOY YOUR YEARS HERE - LIFE GOES FAST!
-MEGAN BEST

A lasting memory from my school years would be standing outside of the gym lobby, looking at a TV and watching a plane crash into the World Trade Center.

-Nick Gibson

School is more important than anything.
-Shawn Herrick

Open yourself up to new people. You don't have to stay in the same circle of friends all the time.
-Jessica Horlacher

Don't concern yourself with all the drama.

Do your best at everything you do and try something new.

-Rachel Gick

My favorite memory was Spring Break 2007 when some of the senior class went to Panama City Beach, FL. We participated in various beach activities that were all legal.

-Kelly Snellenbarger

Just go with the flow. Don't let anything hold you back.

-Matt Lucas

One of my favorite memories from my senior year was the huge bonfire we threw at Stacia's house this fall. My group of friends decided to throw someone in the freezing cold pool. We originally planned on throwing the new kid Barker, but resorted to Poot because we knew he wouldn't get mad. The pool was disgusting and had dead mice and frogs floating around. Poot struggled against everyone but finally went in. He came out and grabbed the first person he could find, which was Stacey and threw her in. Stacey tried to come out and throw Tyler back in but failed miserably and fell back in. It was one of the funniest things I had ever seen. Watching Poot and Stacey freeze cracked me up.

-Amie Newhart

Be yourself and talk to everyone and anyone!

-Kim Ratliff

GRADUATION DAY ARRIVES

Saturday, May 27, 2007 was a big day for the senior class at Clinton Prairie High School. On that day, the classmates got together for one final celebration – the completion of their high school careers at CPHS. All the hard work and determination paid off for the graduates, none more so than for senior class Valedictorian Nick Krammes and Salutatorian Rachel Gick. The two top students of the Class of 2007 spoke to their classmates, and the band and choir members performed, directed by Mr. James Bertucci and Mrs. Angie Schilling, respectively. After Principal David Larsh presented the candidates for graduation, Superintendent Charles Fink accepted the candidates, and diplomas were presented by school board member Mr. R. Craig Seager. When all was said and done, another group of CP grads were on their way to careers, further schooling, and whatever awaited each out there in the world. Congratulations and good luck to the Class of 2007.

Legends Live On

Only the good die young...

The 2007 Revue will be one to remember. The theme was to perform to songs by artists who had died before their time. Some died of drugs, others of heart attacks, and some were killed as results of accidents. The students chose songs ranging from the Beach Boys and Led Zeppelin to Patsy Cline and Judy Garland. The students strived to produce a professional looking show, and they did.

Varsity & JV

The season might have started off slowly, but the Lady Gophers were able to end the season 13-22. The highlight of the season was when the Gophers beat county rival Clinton Central. According to Coach Connie Garrett, the team improved as much from the beginning to end as any volleyball team ever at Clinton Prairie. "This was a team that had to gain confidence in both themselves and their teammates," said Garrett. Amie Newhart and Kayla Bennett were named to the Hoosier Heartland All-Conference.

Varsity Volleyball

Middle Row: Aly Dieter, Laura Bandy, Chelsea Ramsey, Sam Poppe, Raelyn Rawlings;
Back Row: Coach Schilling, Kayla Bennett, Hillary Doyle, Kelli Barnett, Hanna Molberg, Coach Garrett.

New waits to pass the ball. The Lady Gophers' lone senior was named to the 2nd team All-State and played on the North All-Star team in the 1A-2A North-South All-Star Game.

JV Volleyball

The JV volleyball team saw much improvement during the season. The team was 7-14, but lost 7 of their games by only one point. Every player had a specific role. "If it weren't for each one, the team wouldn't have improved as much as they did," said Coach Angie Schilling.

Richie Cooper and Josh Fossnock were two more key players of the season. Cooper had nine touchdowns and five interceptions, and Fossnock had 92 tackles. Jacob Gick and Shawn Walker were two more outstanding participants. Gick broke the school's record for QB sacks, while Walker broke the school's record for least thrown interceptions.

Coach Wines commented the highlights of the season being "whooping" Lapel 40-20 for a Homecoming victory, breaking six school records, and seeing the strong competitive spirit and close games against ranked opponents. Wines also commented, "The boys worked hard in the off -season, and all that hard work paid off during the season. The school spirit was superb as well as the great 'powder puff' action. It was a memorable season with a great group of young men who stuck together and had a good time. They fought through a few injuries and distractions."

Coach Ulrich also had this to say, "I really enjoyed my first season here at Prairie. I had a great group of young men to work with and I am very proud of them. We started building a solid foundation for our program. We are looking forward to next season as we have a great group of players returning. We would also like to wish the best to our three senior captains. They are going to do well in whatever they decide to do!"

The wrestling team's record for the 2006-07 season was 5 wins, 15 losses, and 1 tie. Coach Richards stated that some of his outstanding participants included Kevin Seilhymmer because of his motivation and great work ethic, which helped Corey Bassett become a stronger captain. Bassett was outstanding due to his determination to become a successful wrestler; he accomplished this when he advanced to the regional in the heavyweight division. Chris Maxwell was a good example of a freshman making the transition from junior high to high school successfully. Maxwell qualified for semi-state competition. The highlight of the wrestling season was at Conference, where each wrestler did an excellent job helping CP to a second-place finish. The team also had three individual champions, one second-place, and four third-place finishes. Next year's wrestling team will have some new faces in the middle weights with the incoming freshmen. With a large group of returning seniors, Coach Richards and his wrestlers are looking forward to a great 2007-08 season.

The entire team was nominated for the All-American team, and Em. K, Em. G, Bennett, Jac, Christina, and Eimen made the team. The Varsity cheer team was awarded first place at county fair competition, second at regional, and third at state. Emily Kaniewski, team captain and lone senior, competed against seven other cheerleaders in the individual competition at regional. She was chosen as one of the top four to join the All-State Cheer Team.

At the sports banquets, the coaches handed out the following awards: Shannon Pedigo, Most Improved; Emily Gray, Most Valuable and Outstanding Skills Award; Kayla Bennett, Mental Attitude award; Emily Kaniewski, Most Valuable.

After 14 years of coaching, Bev Barney resigned as head coach. She taught everyone not only about cheerleading, but life in general. She will be dearly missed.

The team's accomplishments for the season included receiving third place in the Clinton County Meet and fourth place in the Hoosier Heartland Conference Meet.

Head coach Al Hintzman had this to say about the varsity team's highlight of the season: "This would have to be seeing them come together as a group, enjoying each other's company, and just the good clean fellowship among them! They exceeded my expectations, far more than I thought they would!"

Leading the varsity were Seniors Sam Sharp and Amanda Stevens, both senior captains for the team. Coach Cooper described Sharp as a defensive leader, while Stevens did a great job at second base and won the team's Sacrifice Award. The highlight of the season was winning the county tourney for the second year in a row. Even though the year was a difficult one for the team, Coach Cooper commended the seniors for holding the team together and teaching the underclassmen how to play softball. 'I was really proud of the seniors,' stated Cooper.

JUNIOR HIGH FOOTBALL

The record of the seventh grade was 2-2-1, and the eighth grade had a perfect season at 5-0. Many touchdowns were scored by the offense, but that never would have happened without the hard work of the defense. The highlight of the seventh and eighth grade season was the win over Clinton Central. Also, the eighth grade's defeat of Sheridan and the team's undefeated season were memorable. The teams were coached by Shaun Rose, Aaron Coe, Ted Davis, and their assistants.

Junior High Boys Basketball

Coached by Shawn Rose, the seventh grade boys ended with a mark of 5-15. Cameron Carlson and Dillon Mang were a great help with the team. "They are both leaders who can control and manage the team," said Coach Rose. Injured or not, these two boys played the entire game. A great comeback victory over Tri-Central was the highlight of the season, said Rose. Down by 12 points at the half, the Gophers came back to win by nine. Coach Rose also had this to add: "Great work, guys! We made some improvements as a team and if you stay together, your team will do great things!"

With small numbers, the eighth grade boys faced a challenging season. However, the boys still managed to come away with 8 wins and 12 losses. In spite of the obstacles, the team made it to the championship game in three out of four tournaments. The team was coached by Chris Ream.

With a tough schedule, the seventh grade girls only managed to win three games during the 2006-2007 season. However, the girls did show steady improvement, according to Coach Steve Clossin. This was evident when the girls nearly won against Rossville in the county tourney, losing by one point in the final seconds of the game. The same Rossville team had beaten the girls by over twenty points earlier in the season.

The JH wrestling team's record this season was 4 and 6. Coach Richards stated that all of the wrestlers did an excellent job. From the beginning, the wrestlers were aggressive and not afraid to wrestle. The older wrestlers improved their skills and are now prepared for high school. Richards said that the highlight of the season was watching the beginning wrestlers attack the older wrestlers in practice, and watching the older wrestlers help the younger wrestlers learn new moves. Coach Richards would like to thank the parents who helped with the gymnastics for the beginners and would also like to thank Katye Clark for keeping the books and for keeping the mat clean.

Coach Connie Garrett has spent the past 37 years coaching at Clinton Prairie. During those years, she has been able to achieve some personal goals as well as team goals. She was inducted into Indiana's Volleyball and Basketball Hall of Fame and was the Volleyball State Coach of the Year in 1997, '98, and '99. She stated, "I think that being a part of both Hall of Fames is simply a great compliment to all the athletes at Clinton Prairie through the years. Such recognition for me was due to not one single player, but a steady flow of talented and hard-working players. This honor is a reflection of the players." Coach Garrett has also brought four State Championships to Clinton Prairie. She has been able to see many different players extend their athletic careers into college. She said, "I feel proud because players are almost like a family member, and any athlete who plays in college does it because of hard work and dedication." Many things have changed throughout her coaching years. When Coach Garrett first started, sports were just a club that would meet once a week, but now girls' sports are a part of the IHSAA. Throughout her coaching years, she has enjoyed working with kids of all different ages and then being able to see them later in life, in college, as mothers, and in professions. Coach Garrett mentioned some of her favorite memories. "The most memorable moment happened every year—watching a player step up and achieve a new level, for some making the team, running a mile, or setting a record. Also, I enjoyed being able to watch and know players from elementary through their senior years." Some other memorable moments included the first state championship in volleyball, the first state championship in basketball, winning certain games or matches that we "weren't supposed to win," almost winning a regional title in track, and the mile-long caravan following the team bus to the first state tourney. Coach Garrett commented, "Really, the greatest memories were being able to share the elation of players and teams when something special was accomplished. It's not what was won but the thrill of accomplishment that was so special." Coach Garrett now plans on spending more time with her granddaughters and playing golf. She is still Assistant Athletic Director for Clinton Prairie and still plans to attend a lot of athletic events.

What a year! It is the last day for seniors and it didn't hit me until just now that I, along with six other people on the yearbook staff, will be graduating... I loved this staff sooo much because of the wide array of personalities. We were very unique. This class made my senior year, and I'll never forget a moment of it. All the people in it brought something fresh and exciting to the yearbook.

Stephanie- Thank you for working so hard here and being so easy to get along with. I couldn't tell that you were "the new kid". You fit right in with our goofy spectrum.

Scottie, Jac, & She-She- I loved still having a class with you cuties when cheerleading was over. I'm so grateful that you worked so hard on staff and picked up the slack from the upper classmen. =) I love you girls.

Dan- The lone Junior. You need to recruit some senior comrades so you won't be lonely next year. I hate leaving you. Losing you in softball was heart wrenching enough, and now we seniors have to leave you. I will miss you beyond belief. I love your blunt attitude and hilarious comments. Thanks for arranging the Senior Night gifts for softball. I will never forget "BRAID GANG" and SHASTA. I will never forget that summer of vandalism and trouble, but a serious amount of memories that will never be topped.....and NEVER, EVER lose my 1st grade letter. =) Love you!

CODEMaster P- Thanks for putting up with being the only boy on the staff. It was probably almost intolerable half the time.=) I will never forget the night at Sam's when you tried to pole dance or the time you leaped over the fire and had full cans thrown at you. Without you those get-togethers would not have been the same. I will miss you.

Kels Bells- Thanks for your hard work everyday. I know that no matter what you do after high school you will be successful. Good luck!

New-It was so exciting seeing you open up and get crazy this year! I had such a blast with you over spring break and going to Pineapple Bob's with you! I'll miss those Marines! (haha) Our silly jokes in yearbook and taking a day off to "paint" will always stick with me. "It showed up on my Caller ID as Jim or something..." It's Charles..."Yeah, that's it." haha =) I will miss you and Goodluck at USI and with your basketball career.

Jaimie- Wow! it seems like 2nd grade was just yesterday. 4th grade flew by and 6th grade will always be the main marker of our friendship. Spring break was a blast! Who knew you were such a party animal? I will miss you so much. I will never forget singing karaoke late at night with you when we were little. Goodluck with all you do. I can't wait to turn on the T.V. one day and tell everyone i went to school with you. Love You.

Stac- I'm so grateful for getting to know you this year and getting close. I had the ultimate time with you over spring break! Especially at Pineapple Willy's when we thought you had been drugged you were so hyper! Thanks for reminding me of Johnny Appleseed and taking care of me that day, and I loved the free SUBWAY! I love you sooooo much! I'll miss you!

My Mae- First day of 1st grade...that curly headed, shy girl didn't want to sit by me, but it was the only seat left in the class. I can't sum up on the bottom of this page what your friendship has done for my life. We have made the best of memories and gotten into a magnitude of trouble. Everything made incredible stories and I'll pass them on throughout my lifetime. Anywhere i go, anything I do, not a day that you don't pop into my head. Every ambition i chase and test that i fail to pass...you'll be there. I'm the luckiest person on this earth, no matter what anyone says, to have you as my BEST FRIEND. Never forget us and the great past that we have made. We left behind some huge footprints for the next Seniors...we caused so much trouble. I love you with all my heart. Thank you for all of it.

Sabenator- Thanks for all the dedication you have to yearbook. We slacked off so much and i just want to say thank you for putting up with it. I will miss this class.

I'll miss TEAM YEARBOOK.
