SCHOOL AND SPORTS PHYSICALS RESOURCE GUIDE FOR OKALOOSA COUNTY

MEDICAL PHYSICAL EXAM REQUIREMENTS, 1003.22 F.S.

Upon initial entrance into a Florida public school each school aged child must present certification of a school entry medical examination performed within the twelve (12) months prior to enrollment in school.

IMMUNIZATION REQUIREMENTS

Before attending school in Florida (kindergarten through 12th grade), every student is required to have a current Florida Certification of Immunization (Form 680) on file at the school documenting required vaccination. The Florida Department of Health in Okaloosa County can provide these vaccinations and form to you at no charge. You can also go to your private health care provider.

FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH IN OKALOOSA COUNTY IMMUNIZATION SERVICES

Immunizations are by appointment only. Walk-ins will be provided the next available appointment. If you need a copy of immunization records from DOH-Okaloosa, no appointment is required; however, depending on clinic volume we may not be able to provide the documents immediately and the parent may need to return to pick it up. There is a $15 fee for copy of immunization records, if not receiving an immunization by DOH-Okaloosa.
