Creative Writing Club

Advisor: Megan Ainsworth | mainsworth@delhischools.org

Goal: Creative Writing Club's purpose is to encourage and create a safe space for written expression outside of academic work. The Creative Writing Club is a group devoted to highlighting the artistic and writing talent of our student body. We encourage and facilitate creative writing and its critique in a safe, supportive, and non-confrontational way.

Meetings Info: Thursdays, 2:50-3:30 p.m. in Room 112.

Delaware Academy Science Club

Advisor: Mark Kline | mkline@delhischools.org

Goal: This group hopes to encourage students to explore the world around them ask questions and have fun in the process of science discovery.

Ideally, students will lead a science demonstration or a lab that they have researched and practiced prior to the meeting. Other times an advisor will lead a lab activity or demonstration, the members will hike outside on the DA campus, participate in a field trip to an off campus location or listen to a guest speaker or news video related to a current event in science.

Meetings Info: Mondays, Room 212.

FCCLA

Advisor: Terri Sherman | tsherman@delhischools.org

Goal: This program aims to provide opportunities for personal development and preparation for adult life. To strengthen the function of the family as a basic unit of society. To encourage democracy through cooperative action in the home and community. To encourage individual and group involvement in helping achieve global cooperation and harmony. To promote greater understanding between youth and adults. To provide opportunities for making decisions and for assuming responsibilities. The students who participate in state and national events (outside of class) pay affiliation fee of $20 a year to be affiliated at state and national level. Scholarship opportunities are available for affiliated members.
