STAFF SPOTLIGHT

Laura Tamburrini Pitiakoudis

Elementary Teacher — D'Arcy McGee

Laura devotes herself every day to empowering her entire school community. In her classroom, every student feels seen, valued, and supported by lessons that are both meaningful and engaging. She constantly refreshes her curriculum with new technology to keep learning exciting. Her dedication extends far beyond her classroom doors: whether she's coaching a sport, lending a hand to a colleague, covering a duty, or bringing school initiatives to life, her generosity, strong community partnerships and selflessness make the school a warmer, more vibrant place for everyone.

Joe Racioppo

Head Caretaker — Brebreuf College

Joe is a committed custodian who keeps his school maintained above and beyond board expectations. He actively assists admin, teaching, and facilities staff, and has been a mentor to future Head Custodians and SQS's. His dedication to cultivating a clean and safe work environment has flourished into a school that staff and students are thrilled to attend every day and does not go unnoticed.

Jen Miles

Volunteer — Holy Name

For nearly two decades, Jen has poured her heart into her school community. As a dedicated Chair of the Catholic School Parent Council for ten years, she has organized school clubs, author nights, pizza lunches and annual family events, volunteered in classrooms and supported field trips. She is the creative force behind the school's spirit wear logo and vibrant murals, leaving a lasting legacy on the school community long after her own children have graduated from Holy Name. Her countless contributions have fostered a vibrant environment where students, families, and staff thrive.
