The Serenity Prayer

+In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change;
courage to change the things I can;
and wisdom to know the difference.
Living one day at a time;
Enjoying one moment at a time;
Accepting hardships as the pathway to peace;
Taking, as He did, this sinful world
as it is, not as I would have it;
Trusting that He will make all things right
if I surrender to His Will;
That I may be reasonably happy in this life
and supremely happy with Him
Forever in the next.

+In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Land Acknowledgement

The land we walk on belongs to the Creator. Earth does not belong to humanity but rather, humanity is part of the Earth. The land was created to be enjoyed by all living beings, a principle reflected in The Dish with One Spoon covenant. Taking only what we need to preserve our earth for future generations, leaving some for others as a sign of our respect and caring, and keeping it clean by revitalizing the land to sustain generations to come.

All Toronto Catholic District School Board (TCDSB) properties are situated on the traditional territories of the Anishinabek, the Haudenosaunee Confederacy, and the Wendat peoples. We recognize that the land covered by Treaty 13 is held by the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. We also listen to the echoes of their prayers to the Creator, and respect the beauty of Mother Earth while striving to learn and draw wisdom from First Nations, Inuit and Métis traditions.

THE BEGINNING OF A NEW SCHOOL YEAR

At the start of a new school year, we can reflect on CSPC's achievements, learn from our experiences, and build on our successes as we move forward with a renewed sense of purpose.

Formality and procedure are a part of CSPC because of the vital role it serves. This is not simply a gathering; it is a meeting of individuals dedicated to the well-being and success of the students in our school community.

POLICY

We find within Board Policies guidance and direction for our Catholic School Parent Councils (CSPC) which stem from the Education Act 612/00.

Within the Appendix A | CSPC By-Laws | S.10 | TCDSB Policy

Article II - Purpose of the Organization

In the spirit of the mission and vision statements of the Toronto Catholic District School Board (TCDSB), the Catholic School Parent Council (CSPC) shall function in an advisory role to enrich, enhance and improve student education, achievement and well-being. As well, The Council will enhance the accountability of the education system to parents by making recommendations to the principal and, where appropriate, the Board on any matter in accordance with the Education Act and the policies, guidelines and operating procedures of the Board.

5.4 The Role and Responsibility of The Council

The Catholic School Parent Council shall:

- Represent the best interests of all students.
- Maintain ethical standards and set ground rules of respect for all meetings.
- Be informed and familiar with TCDSB policies and develop an understanding of how the policies impact the school community.
- Keep the school community informed of The Council's work, such as: meetings dates and minutes, committee work, news and survey results.
- Seek to involve the entire school community in an equitable manner through a variety of mediums, including for example, questionnaires, informal discussions or topic-specific meetings.
- Actively and accurately represent the views of the school community.
- Encourage and promote parental engagement and support.

POLICE RECORD CHECK

Members of CSPCs are required to complete a Criminal Record and Judicial Matters Check as a condition of participation. The Board will provide the letter required for the Criminal Record and Judicial Matters Check fee to be waived.

If a parent would like to join the CSPC, they should begin the Criminal Record and Judicial Matters Check process immediately.

Catholic School Parent Councils | TCDSB Policy has been updated, and Regulation 28 to 31 provide guidance and direction regarding the Criminal Record and Judicial Matters Check and Vulnerable Sector Check.

Principals can sign the Fee Waiver Letter (only for Criminal Record and Judicial Matters Check).

Fee Waiver Letter be found on Volunteering With Us | Toronto Catholic District School Board.

Members of the CSPC must obtain a Vulnerable Sector Check if they will be attending any activities in which they will have direct and ongoing contact with students, including if they will be responsible for supervising or directing students or will be unsupervised with students. The cost of the Vulnerable Sector Check will be at the CSPC member's own expense.

CSPC cannot reimburse the cost of the Vulnerable Sector Check.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. What is the purpose of the Catholic School Parent Council (CSPC)?
   - As per Article II - Purpose of the Organization of the CSPC By-Laws - In the spirit of the mission and vision statements of the Toronto Catholic District School Board (TCDSB), the Catholic School Parent Council (CSPC) shall function in an advisory role to enrich, enhance and improve student education, achievement and well-being. As well, The Council will enhance the accountability of the education system to parents by making recommendations to the principal and, where appropriate, the Board on any matter in accordance with the Education Act and the policies, guidelines and operating procedures of the Board.

2. What is the Role and Responsibility of the CSPC?
   - As per Article 5.4 The Role and Responsibility of The Council is
     The Catholic School Parent Council shall:
     • Represent the best interests of all students.
     • Maintain ethical standards and set ground rules of respect for all meetings.
     • Be informed and familiar with TCDSB policies and develop an understanding of how the policies impact the school community.
     • Keep the school community informed of The Council's work, such as: meetings dates and minutes, committee work, news and survey results.
     • Seek to involve the entire school community in an equitable manner through a variety of mediums, including for example, questionnaires, informal discussions or topic specific meetings.
     • Actively and accurately represent the views of the school community.
     • Encourage and promote parental engagement and support.

3. What is the order for the initial CSPC meetings at the beginning of the school year?
   - The order of initial CSPC meetings at the beginning of the school year are
     1. Annual General Meeting (AGM)
     2. Parent Elections
     3. Inaugural meeting

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

4. Are the AGM, CSPC Parent Elections and the Inaugural meeting held in-person or via a virtual platform?
   - The format can be either in-person or virtual and is a local collaborative decision between the Election Committee and the school Principal. The school must provide a public platform for all parents of the school community who wish to attend.

5. Can the school schedule the AGM, Parent Elections and the Inaugural meeting for the same day?
   - The AGM, Parent Elections and Inaugural meeting can be scheduled for the same day.
   - However, based on the history of the school, if it is anticipated that there will be more candidates running for council than the available positions for elected parent members, meetings can take place on separate days. It is recommended that the Inaugural Meeting take place on a different date, after which time the principal and election committee can determine the successful candidates that will fill the number of elected parent member positions on The Council, prior to the election of the executive positions by newly elected parent members and Teacher and non-teaching representatives.
   - At a minimum, there should be breaks between all three meetings.

6. Does the parent/guardian need to be present at the Parent Election Meeting once a nomination form is submitted?
   - Yes. A parent/guardian seeking election as an elected parent member is expected to attend the Parent Election Meeting to confirm their nomination and, where applicable, introduce themselves to those present prior to the election process. Attendance helps ensure that nominees are willing to serve and provides an opportunity for parents to make informed voting decisions.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

7. Does this exception apply to other CSPC positions?
   - ❖ This expectation also applies to appointed positions, such as: Community Representative; and Parent Representative with an Interest in Special Education. Individuals being considered for these appointed positions should attend the Inaugural Meeting at which the appointments will be considered, so they can confirm their interest in serving on the CSPC.

8. What happens if there are vacancies after the Parent Elections and Inaugural meetings are held?
   - ❖ If vacancies remain after the Parent Election and the Inaugural meetings, the vacant positions may be filled during a subsequent CSPC meeting in accordance with the CSPC By-Laws and election procedures.

9. Can a person vote at a CSPC meeting if they are not present?
   - ❖ No. Only members who are present at a called CSPC meeting may vote on motions, elections, appointments, or other matters before the Council. Proxy voting is not permitted under the CSPC By-Laws.
   - ❖ This requirement applies to all CSPC meetings, including:
     - Annual General Meetings (AGM);
     - Parent Election Meetings;
     - Inaugural Meetings; and
     - Regular CSPC Meetings

10. What is the role of a non-voting parent/guardian?
    - ❖ A non-voting parent/guardian may attend CSPC meetings, participate in discussions, serve on subcommittees, and volunteer at CSPC-sponsored events and activities. While they are not eligible to vote on motions, elections, appointments, or other Council decisions, they play a valuable role in supporting the work of the CSPC and contributing to initiatives that enhance student achievement, well-being, and parent engagement.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

11. Who can vote for the elected parent members?

- The whole school community (parents/guardians) that is present can participate in the vote for elected parent members (aka voting parent members) during the Parent Elections meeting.

12. Who can vote for the executive officers?

- ONLY the newly elected parent members and the teacher and non-teaching representatives, if any, can participate in the vote for the executive officers during the Inaugural meeting.

13. Are the executive officer positions additional positions to the number of elected parent members as per the school's CSPC By-Laws?

- No, executive officers are not additional positions and are selected from the newly elected parent members.

14. Who can appoint a community representative and parent with interest in special education positions?

- ONLY the newly elected parent members and the teacher and non-teaching representatives, if any, can participate in the vote for the executive officers during the Inaugural meeting.

15. Can the election of the CSPC executive members and appointments be made in private?

- No. The election of CSPC Executive Officers and the appointment of representatives must be conducted at a meeting that is open, public, and accessible to the school community. The transparency of this process helps ensure accountability and confidence in Council governance

16. How long is term for each CSPC member?

- Each member of the CSPC elected and appointed has a term length of one school year. The process of establishing CSPC membership occurs each new school year.

17. Does the chair have to be Roman Catholic?

- Yes. The chair or at least one of the co-chairs must be Roman Catholic.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

18. If the school's CSPC By-Laws stipulate that the chair/co-chairs can hold office for two (2) consecutive years, must they be re-elected as a parent representative?

- Yes. To be eligible for election or re-election as Chair or Co-Chair, an individual must first be elected as a parent member of the CSPC. If the current Chair or Co-Chairs are not elected to one of the parent member positions, they are not eligible to serve or be re-elected as Chair or Co-Chair, regardless of the number of consecutive years permitted under the by-laws.
- The two-year consecutive term limit applies only to an elected parent member who continues to serve on the CSPC and holds the position of Chair or Co-Chair. Once the maximum consecutive term has been reached, the individual may remain a member of the CSPC if eligible under the by-laws but cannot be re-elected as Chair or Co-Chair until at least one full term has elapsed since their last term in that role. After that period, they may again be eligible for election as Chair or Co-Chair.

19. Can a TCDSB employee run for the chair/co-chairs position?

- No, a TCDSB employee cannot run for the chair/co-chairs position as per CSPC By-Laws.

20. Can a TCDSB employee who works at a school where their child attends (e.g., teacher, educational assistant, lunch supervisor, SNP coordinator, secretary, etc.), run for the position of elected parent member?

- No, the only positions that a TCDSB employee who works at the school where their child attends can run for are the teacher or non-teaching representative positions according to the employee group that they belong to.

21. Can a TCDSB employee who works at a school that their child doesn't attend (e.g., teacher, educational assistant, lunch supervisor, SNP coordinator, secretary, etc.), run for the position of elected parent member at their child's school?

- Yes, and they are required to disclose their employment on the nomination form and prior to the election. And as per question #19, they cannot run for the chair/co-chairs position.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

22. Is the Snack Nutrition Program Coordinator an employee of the Board?

- The Snack Nutrition Program Coordinator is not a Board employee. They are a volunteer who receives an honorarium from the school using funds provided by the Angel Foundation for Learning.

23. Can a parent fill the Pastor position?

- No, the Pastor position shall be held by the Pastor of the local church affiliated to the school or the by a person designated by the Pastor.

24. Who can be a Community Representative?

- The community representative(s) shall be a person who represents segments of the Catholic school community not represented on the CSPC. (Community representatives should be selected from examples: representative from a local business association/community group, City Councillor's office etc.)
- A parent/guardian of the school cannot be the Community Representative.
  A CSPC reserves the right not to appoint a candidate to the Community Representative position if it concludes that the candidate is not the right fit.

25. Do all members of the CSPC require Criminal Record and Judicial Matters Check?

- Yes, members of CSPCs are required to complete a Criminal Record and Judicial Matters Check as a condition of participation. The Board will provide the letter required for the Criminal Record and Judicial Matters Check fee to be waived.

26. Is a member of the CSPC that has a current Police Record Check with their workplace or organization required to complete the Criminal Record and Judicial Matters Check with the Board?

- Yes, that member will still be required to complete the Criminal Record and Judicial Matters Check with the Board. The Board will provide the letter required for the Criminal Record and Judicial Matters Check fee to be waived.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

27. When is a Vulnerable Sector Check required for a parent?

- A Vulnerable Sector Check is required if they will be attending any activities in which they will have direct and ongoing contact with students, including if they will be responsible for supervising or directing students or will be unsupervised with students. The cost of the Vulnerable Sector Check will be at the CSPC member's own expense.
