ATTLEBORO SPECIAL EDUCATION PARENT ADVISORY COUNCIL

About Us

The Attleboro SEPAC is a parent-led, volunteer organization dedicated to supporting families of students with disabilities. We work in collaboration with the Attleboro Public Schools to ensure that every child has access to the resources, services, and support they need to succeed academically and socially.

What We Do

Workshops & Events

We host informational workshops and training on a variety of special education topics

Parent Support

Provide a platform for families to connect, share experiences, and support one another

Advisory Role

Represent the parent voice in decisions related to special education services, policies, and practices

Collaboration with Schools

Work with district officials to improve educational programs for students with disabilities

ATTLEBORO SPECIAL EDUCATION PARENT ADVISORY COUNCIL

Our Mission Statement

The Attleboro Special Education Parent Advisory Council's (ASEPAC) mission is to understand, respect and support all children with disabilities within our community.

- Promote a network for parents of students with disabilities and provide a forum to share information and discuss matters of relative interest and concern.
- Support communication and programs within the community to encourage understanding, respect, acceptance and inclusion of students with disabilities.
- Collaborate with the school community to continually improve the educational opportunities available throughout the Attleboro Public Schools that cultivate improved educational outcomes for students with disabilities.
