OVERTIME DECISION

Overtime judges will not be used any longer in case of a tie match tournament. The following criteria will be used.

1. If a wrestler has been penalized for misconduct, abusive or unsportsmanlike conduct, his opponent will be declared the winner.
2. If a tie remains, the wrestler who has accumulated the greater number of points for near-falls will be declared the winner.
3. If a tie remains, the wrestler with the greater number of takedowns will be declared the winner.
4. If a tie remains, the wrestler with the greater number of reversals will be declared the winner.
5. If a tie remains, the wrestler with the greater number of escapes will be declared the winner.
6. If a tie remains, the wrestler whose opponent has been penalized for stalling shall be declared the winner.
7. If a tie remains, the wrestler whose opponent had been warned for stalling will be declared the winner.
8. If a tie remains, the wrestler who scored the first near-fall shall be declared the winner.
9. If a tie remains, the wrestler who earned the first takedown shall be declared the winner.
10. If none of the foregoing resolves the tie, the referee (and/or mat judges, if being used) shall determine the winner on the basis of overall wrestling ability, including aggressiveness.
