10th Grade American Legion Oratory Contest

On Wednesday, sophomores Ava Staudt, Jack Barzizza, Piper Dodd, Sam Miller, Kate O'Connor and Lola Morris participated in the 11th Annual Dick Allgood Post 99 American Legion Oratory Contest at the WMPAC. These courageous students spoke on various aspects of the US Constitution and how civic engagement and civic duties are paramount to the preservation of that document. All contestants gave an original oration ranging from 8 to 10 minutes in length on their subjects. Jack Barzizza took first place and will move onto the District competition, where he will represent LPHS in Bozeman at the District 7 contest. Time and date of that event is TBD. Mr. Coppola wants to applaud all of their work ethic, faith in themselves and commitment to their craft. It was wonderful to see them perform and we are all extremely proud of all of them. Job well done!!

Next week's LPHS BHB:

Hatch Global Voices Speaker: Dr. Luke McKay, Scientist

Dr. McKay will discuss the diversity of life on Earth. His work focuses on understanding how microscopic organisms can help us tackle environmental catastrophes like climate change. Notably, he discovered the oldest recorded organism in Yellowstone Park, which has provided insights into the origins of life and the potential for life beyond our planet.

Mrs. Martinez has a list of summer opportunites for students.
Check out the list here!

An Enchanted Forest Evening Needs YOU!

Calling all bakers!

We're looking for homemade cakes and pies for the 2026 Pie Auction, happening Friday, March 27 in the LPHS gym*.*
This year's theme is An Enchanted Forest Evening – think fairy tales, woodland magic, and all things whimsical. Let your imagination run wild!

Cash prizes:
1st place – $100
2nd place – $75
3rd place – $50

To participate, please email your entry to Holly Coltea (hcoltea@gmail.com) by March 1 or see Mrs. Romine

This adults-only evening is one of our favorite community traditions and a big part of helping our students reach their fundraising goals. Your sweet creation truly makes a difference! We can't wait to see what you bake!
