Student Council

The Student Council tried to elevate school spirit by planning a number of activities for the student body. Included in the plans were sock-hops after basketball games and a fishing pole and license raffle. An activities day was also planned for students in order to raise money for a scoreboard and a popcorn machine.

The juniors were very active during the 1980-81 school year. Working to make money for the Junior-Senior Banquet and the Spring Formal, they held a gas raffle early in the fall and operated the food concession during all sports events. At the same time, several class members were involved in sports, music, dramatics, and student government.

Beginning the school year with only $125 in their treasury, they were nearing $1000 by early February.

Class advisors were Miss DeLapp and Mrs. Dunaway.

- Paula Whittaker & Mischele Way

- Brenda Fulton & Todd Beckford
- Lisa Thurston & Rohna Donahou

The highlights of the week were the basketball game against Jewell (which Falls City won), and the Homecoming Dance.

Speakers Lori S., Kathy C., and Earl M. nervously anticipate the beginning of the Banquet.

Junior-Senior Banquet

The 1981 Junior-Senior Banquet was held at the Kings Table in West Salem on May 9. Approximately 45 people attended the semi-formal affair which was hosted by the 1981 Junior Class.

Junior Class President Earl Mack gave a welcome address, and Senior Class President Kathy Cox gave the response. Following the buffet-style dinner, Lori Sickles read the Senior Class will.

Songs chosen for the occasion were "This One's For You" and "Looks Like We Made It." At the close of the ceremonies, each member of the Class of '81 was presented a white carnation by a member of the Class of '82.

Darien L. and Mr. Dunaway get involved in the conversation as Michele C. keeps an eye on Mr. D.

Senior Slave Day

The traditional "Senior Slave Auction" was held in the library on Thursday, May 21, with class advisor Mr. Owre acting as auctioneer.

On Friday, May 22, seniors were released from regular classes to perform their "slave-like" duties.

Everyone enjoyed the event, and the seniors added a tidy sum to their class treasury.

Student Government

Election of Student Body Officers for the 1981-82 school year were conducted during the week of May 4. There was a single candidate for every office except for President, with Paula Whittaker running opposed by Kevin Montgomery.

Speeches for officers' positions were given before an assembly on May 5. Every candidate spoke except Deanna Esterbloom, who was ill.

Elections were held on May 6, with the following people elected: President—Kevin Montgomery; Vice-President—Alice Loiselle; Secretary—Tami Noland; and Business Manager—Deanna Esterbloom.

The new officers were sworn in by out-going President Stacy Headrick on May 15, 1981.
