Our 7th annual Haunted Hustle 5K will take place on Saturday, October 18th. Rosholt High School Student Council is organizing this race with all proceeds going towards various Rosholt School student activities and non-profit fundraisers donated to by the HS Student Council. The 5K run or walk will take you through a portion of the Benn Conservancy and through the community of Rosholt ending back at the Benn. Some participants will receive a short-sleeved race shirt (first 100 to check in) and a bib. The race will be timed with the top three male and female finishers in each age group receiving awards. Be sure to show up and in your best Halloween costume to be entered into the costume contest. Those who win the costume contest will also receive a prize!

All participants and spectators are welcome to enjoy the beauty of the Benn after the race by taking a post-race walk along the trails, bridges, and boardwalks through the Benn Conservancy.

The race will start and finish near the Rosholt High School Commons. Registration will take place in the Commons and parking is available near the south and north entrances in the staff and student parking lots.
