HERE ARE THE PEOPLE WHO HAVE HELPED assemble this Golden Spur for you. They have been wonderful to work with and have been equal to every need.

You remember them - you had classes with some of them, and you bought your annual from one of them.

Hello -

I want you to know "Jubie." You will see him capering through the pages of this Golden Spur. Sometimes he is serious - sometimes he is mischievous - always he is lovable. We hope he will help you remember this busy, bustling, bountiful year! His name will remind you of the most fabulous event of Spur's history - "Jubie" for Jubilee!

"Jubie" and I are wearing our cowboy hats. You see quite a lot of real Western attire on the streets of our town and in the halls of our school. People from other parts of the country say that we have a real "western flavor." Then too, you will find people in this book all decked out in their jubilee clothes. We have tried to save some special memories for you - we hope they remain GOLDEN through the years.

*Seniors Present
"Big Fisherman"! . . .*

THE BIG FISHERMAN will be remembered as one of the most ambitious productions of the year. The 1960 Senior Class proved equal to the demands of the colorful adaptation of the Lloyd C. Douglas Biblical novel. The 23-person cast worked on a low platform constructed in the high school gym. Miss Betsy Donovan, assisted by Mrs. Lane Ericson, directed the play.

Senior Trip and Baccalaureate Find Seniors Breathless and Amazed!

In spite of gusty winds and threatening weather, the crowds gathered in Jones Stadium for Baccalaureate Service.

Here is what they saw - long lines of white-robed seniors, solemn as Rev. John Floyd brought the sermon.

A reception at Dyess Hall followed the graduation exercise which was held at "wind-swept" Jones Stadium. Sponsor Lane Ericson relaxes with Jo Anne Foreman and Max Christopher.

With this last class activity, we say good-bye to the Seniors of 1960. May this GOLDEN SPUR hold treasured memories for each of you.
