Benefit Information for EVSD Employees

Healthcare Benefits

Employees who meet the eligibility criteria outlined in Chapter 182-31 WAC have access to medical, dental, vision, and supplemental disability insurance through the School Employee Benefit Board (SEBB).

Retirement

All regular, non-substitute employees who meet eligibility requirements are enrolled in a state retirement plan through the Washington State Department of Retirement Systems (DRS).

Paid Time Off

All regular, non-substitute employees receive paid time off as outlined in their union's Collective Bargaining Agreement.

- EVEA employees receive 12 days of sick/emergency leave and 4 personal leave days each school year, prorated based on their FTE. This is outlined in Article V of the EVEA CBA.
- PSE employees can view the leave allotments for their position in Article VII and Article XI of the PSE CBA.

Substitute employees and coaches receive sick leave per RCW 49.46.210.

Other Benefits

- All regular (non-substitute or coaching) employees receive a monthly VEBA contribution as outlined in their union's Collective Bargaining Agreement.
- Classified employees receive 11-13 paid holidays per year, depending on their position, as outlined in the PSE CBA.
- Employees have access to an Employee Assistance Program (EAP) that provides counseling, legal guidance, work-life solutions, and financial resources.
