II. Old business:

a) CTE Programs Review

- Mrs. Coots presents a handout to represent the opportunities students can have after school and how it is based on are needs. She continues to review the document and that she feels in the future the district could create an education CTE or Business/Computer CTE pathways (programs of study). These are fairly inexpensive courses to offer and we already have 80-85% in the school now, with minimal adding to finish the requirements we could begin these courses.

III. New business:

a) K – 8 Math Curriculum Proposal

- Mrs. Coots reviews the math curriculum books that will be entering the 28 day review period. K-4 Houghton Mifflin Harcourt: Go Math. Will need to look at the pre-Algebra, this includes 8th grade. A handout shows districts k-8 grade math books. Mrs. Coots would like to take a year to look at the 7-8 grade McGraw Hill with dep evaluation being done in January. Parents have expressed that online (IXL/iReady) makes it harder to support their students, this information was gathered through surveys that were sent out to the district parents.

Mr. Miller mentions that he is nervous to change the current math curriculum and the continuity of the math. Mrs. Coots notes that is not just the curriculum but to add a portion of the success of the math program is the attentiveness of Mr. Miller that has aided to the teachers and how the middle school has some of the top math scores in the state. The May board meeting will be the meeting to get all this resolved to allow for a proper 28-day window and time to get quotes. Mrs. Coots and Mr. Miller will work together on a proposal to be completed and presented by the April work session.
