Crossett Elementary Career Fair

On Friday, March 15, 1st through 3rd grade students at Crossett Elementary participated in a career carnival. The carnival was sponsored by local community members. The students received an inside look at various careers within our community and state. Farm Bureau provided students with an insight in how automated combines are used in farming and the process used by dairy farmers in getting milk. Students also observed and learned about various farm animals sponsored by Peyton Brockwell and Anna Bradshaw. The Crossett Fire and Police Departments were present and discussed the careers of fire-fighters and police officers with the students. The students also observed dog trainer Bob Edmonson and learned the skills needed to be a dog trainer. The carnival was a great success that was enjoyed very much by the students and staff.
