2023 INDUCTION

COLLEEN PROEHL

CLASS OF 1969

Mrs. Colleen Proehl is an exceptional individual whose dedication to the Cleveland Hill School District and community knows no bounds. Following her graduation from Cleveland Hill High School in 1969, she went on to marry and raise three sons in the Cleveland Hill community, all of whom are featured on our Athletic Wall of Fame. In addition, she was also a devoted employee for American Airlines for over thirty years.

Colleen has served the Cleveland Hill community as an alumni member, a parent, a school board member, a member and former president of the PTA and the founder of CHEF (Cleveland Hill Educational Foundation). Colleen created CHEF as another way to give back to the students and faculty at Cleveland Hill by offering grants used to enhance the educational or suitable cultural experiences for the students of Cleveland Hill. At the time of induction, CHEF has granted over $150,000 to support school and community based initiatives.

SAL CAPACCIO

CLASS OF 1991

Mr. Sal Capaccio is a sports talk show host and the Buffalo Bills beat and sideline reporter. In addition to that, he is a loving husband and father, and a lifelong Golden Eagle.

Following his graduation from Cleveland Hill High School with the great Class of 1991, Sal went on to continue his education at Syracuse University and the University of South Florida. After teaching and coaching multiple high school sports at Charlotte County Public Schools for more than ten years, Sal returned to his Western New York roots where he works as a talk show host and reporter for WGR Sports Radio 550, as well as the Buffalo Bills Radio Network. Sal has been a regular presence at Cleveland Hill functions and events, serving at multiple speaking engagements, and attending the annual graduation ceremony where he generously donates scholarships to deserving members of the senior class.
