The Springdale Public Facilities Board (PFB) met in regular session on Wednesday, April 24, 2024, at Arvest Ballpark with the following members present: Jim Crouch, Don Gibson, Brent Hanby, Elmer Rodriguez and Rick Barrows. Also attending were Mayor Doug Sprouse, City Attorney Ernest Cate, City Planner Patsy Christie, Deputy Planner Sharon Tromburg, City Finance Director Cody Loerts, Justin Cole and Brock White of the NWA Naturals, Jason Appel and Brandon Rush of ESI, Tom Sissom from the NWA Democrat-Gazette, Bill Rogers and Jay Sego of the Springdale Chamber of Commerce.

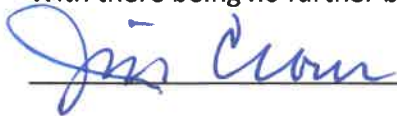

Mr. Crouch called the meeting to order and welcomed the City of Springdale guests. Minutes from the March 2024 regular meeting were reviewed. A motion was made by Gibson to approve the minutes, Hanby seconded the motion and the motion passed.

Sego presented the March 2024 financial report with $1,150,513.56 in available cash and $5,165,776.32 in total available funds. A motion was made by Barrows to approve the financial report as presented, Gibson seconded the motion and it passed. Hanby made a motion to approve payment for two attached invoices, Gibson seconded the motion and it passed.

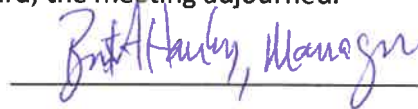

Cole discussed the March 2024 ballpark financials then shared the ballpark canopy was recently completed. Following the meeting, the Board and guests toured the visitor locker room, field and other offseason maintenance projects.

Sego shared a talent attraction opportunity to partner with the NWA Council and leverage their marketing resources. Gibson made a contingent motion to participate in this partnership within the next six months, in a one-time contribution not to exceed $20K and limited to Chair Crouch approval. Barrows seconded the motion and it passed.

With there being no further business to come before the Board, the meeting adjourned.
