FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Commerce City Schools Continues Free Meals at CPS, CES, and CMS Through Community Eligibility Provision (CEP) for the 2026–2027 School Year

Commerce, GA — Commerce City Schools is pleased to announce the continued participation of Commerce Primary School, Commerce Elementary School, and Commerce Middle School in the National School Lunch and School Breakfast Programs through the Community Eligibility Provision (CEP) for the 2026–2027 school year.Through CEP, all students enrolled at these three schools will continue to receive breakfast and lunch at no charge, regardless of household income.

Parents and guardians of students attending Commerce Primary School, Commerce Elementary School, and Commerce Middle School do not need to complete free or reduced-price meal applications. By continuing participation in CEP, Commerce City Schools ensures that every student has access to healthy, nutritious meals that support learning, growth, and overall well-being.

Participating Schools for 2026–2027:

- Commerce Primary School
- Commerce Elementary School
- Commerce Middle School

Greg Buice, School Nutrition Director for Commerce City Schools, stated,

"We are excited to continue offering free breakfast and lunch to all students at Commerce Primary School, Commerce Elementary School, and Commerce Middle School through the Community Eligibility Provision for the 2026–2027 school year. This program helps ensure every student has access to nutritious meals each day while making the process easier for our families. We are proud to continue supporting our students by providing healthy meals that fuel learning and success both in and out of the classroom."

This initiative is made possible through support from the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) and reflects Commerce City Schools' ongoing commitment to creating a supportive learning environment where every student has the resources they need to thrive.
