* Teachers new to the District shall be placed on appropriate step for outside experience.
* After the maximum amount on each step of the salary schedule has been reached, no further outside experience will be allowed.
* An uncertified teacher that is in the process of being licensed will be frozen at step 1. The uncertified employee will be allowed two years to obtain certification. If they have not gained certification within those two years, the position will be opened up and the District will advertise. The uncertified employee will have the opportunity to remain employed if the District is unable to fill the position with a certified applicant.
