Chatham Community

Chatham Borough and Chatham Township are located approximately 25 miles west of Manhattan in Morris County, New Jersey. The communities share a post office, library, and unwavering support for an exemplary public school district. Both municipalities have been featured in publications such as The New York Times and New Jersey Monthly as highly desirable places to live.

School District of the Chathams

The school district enrolls approximately 3,600 students in six school buildings, providing educational programming for students in grades pre-K through 12. Three of its six schools have been recognized as No Child Left Behind Blue Ribbon Schools, and the district's schools and students consistently garner state and regional recognitions in academics, arts, and athletics.

Chatham High School

Chatham High School is accredited by the New Jersey Department of Education and is recognized locally and nationally as a premier educational institution. New Jersey Monthly has ranked Chatham High School as a top New Jersey High School. U.S. News and World Report has awarded Chatham High School a gold medal yearly. In each of the past five years, over 95% of its graduates have gone on to attend institutions of higher education, with over 90% of all graduates furthering their education at four-year colleges or universities. Chatham High School offers a diverse curriculum designed to meet the academic and socio-emotional needs of all learners and includes in its catalog 30 Advanced Placement courses. The current enrollment at CHS is approximately 1,200 students.
