Clarendon County School District's Kyndra Johnson Awarded 2026 South Carolina Social Worker of the Year

Manning, SC - Clarendon County School District is proud to announce that Ms. Kyndra Johnson, the District Social Work Coordinator, has been honored with the prestigious 2026 South Carolina Social Worker of the Year by the South Carolina School Social Work Association. This recognition reflects her exceptional commitment to the well-being of students and the broader community.

In her role, Ms. Johnson emphasizes the importance of addressing the needs of the whole child. She stated, "Every child deserves support that goes beyond academics. When we focus on the emotional, social, and physical well-being of our students, we empower them to thrive not just in school but in life. It is essential to cultivate an environment where all aspects of a child's development are nurtured."

Ms. Johnson's dedication to serving students and their families has made a significant impact within Clarendon CSD. Her tireless efforts and passion for social work inspire both staff and students alike.

The district invites the community to join in celebrating Ms. Kyndra Johnson's remarkable achievement and her unwavering commitment to advocating for the needs of the whole child.
