Clarendon County School District Welcomes New Leadership

Newly Elected Members Sworn in During Special Called Board Meeting on November 16th

Clarendon County, SC – The Clarendon County School District held a special called meeting on Monday, November 16th, to officially swear in newly elected and re-elected board members.

Tami Green was elected to the board to replace Johnny Bonaparte. Alongside her, Linda Lemon, Bobby Fleming (now serving as Vice Chairman), and John Hardy were sworn in as re-elected members of the board. Each board member expressed a commitment to prioritize the needs of students and to work collaboratively as they embark on this new journey together.

“I am proud to be selected as Chairman," stated Ceth Land, Esq. "As Rev. Lawson stated, we must keep the students of Clarendon County first as we move forward and work together.”

The Clarendon County School District eagerly anticipates the leadership and contributions of its newly sworn-in board members as they work to meet the educational needs of the community and advance the district’s mission of educating and empowering every student.
