Superintendent's Report — Dr. Lewis Brooks began his report by telling about the 350 bus drivers who attended the two sessions of "Back To School Bus Driver Meetings" held today at SCISC. He said it was a great day full of excitement and anticipation of students returning to school. Superintendent Brooks also shared with everyone an excellent video of our New Teacher Orientation that took place last week. It was a perfect glimpse into the heart of the new talent we are pleased to welcome to Shelby County Schools this year.

Finally, Dr. Brooks introduced Montevallo City Councilman Mr. David King, who presented a check for $2,000,000 on behalf of the City of Montevallo and their Development Cooperative. Mr. King expressed his excitement to partner with our district on the new gym at Montevallo High, as well as the development of the multi-sports fields at the recently purchased Brown property for the betterment of all youth in the Montevallo community. This concluded the Superintendent's Report.

Upon recommendation of the Superintendent, a motion was made by Dr. Davis, seconded by Mrs. Polk, and unanimously approved the Personnel Actions, as presented.
