For Immediate Release:

Dr. Chad Chisolm Named Moore Elementary Principal

Griffin, GA – On May 26, the Griffin-Spalding County School System (GSCS) Board of Education approved the superintendent's recommendation to appoint Dr. Chad Chisolm as the principal of Moore Elementary School.

Dr. Chisolm brings nearly two decades of experience in school administration, curriculum development and leadership to Moore Elementary. He most recently served as a GSCS School Improvement Coordinator where he provided instructional leadership focused on supporting teachers and student achievement. Dr. Chisolm began his career in education as a paraprofessional with Atlanta Public Schools. He then served as a teacher with Atlanta Public Schools and Henry County Schools, an instructional coach with Clayton County Schools and a building administrator with Butts and Henry County Schools.

Dr. Chisolm earned his bachelor's degree in Biology and Chemistry from Clayton State University, a master's degree in Teaching Secondary Science from Georgia State University and doctorate in Education Leadership from Northcentral University.

Dr. Chisolm stated, "I am excited and honored to serve the students, staff, families and community as the newly appointed and proud principal of Moore Elementary. I believe schools thrive when strong relationships, high-quality instruction and a shared commitment to student success are at the center of our work. Priorities for the upcoming school year include strengthening academic achievement, supporting teacher development, increasing family and community engagement and establishing systems that promote consistency, accountability and excellence across the school. Nothing short of immediate impact."

"I believe that Dr. Chisolm is a great fit for Moore Elementary. In his role as School Improvement Coordinator, he has been engaged in the work at Moore. He has demonstrated a strong commitment to instructional excellence, collaborative leadership and continuous improvement. I look forward to seeing continued growth under Dr. Chisolm's leadership," stated GSCS Superintendent Dr. Donald Warren.
