Dr. Stephanie Nash Named Principal of Jordan Hill Elementary

Griffin, GA – On May 26, the Griffin-Spalding County School System (GSCS) Board of Education approved the superintendent's recommendation to appoint Dr. Stephanie Nash as the 2026-27 principal of Jordan Hill Elementary School.

Dr. Nash has been in public education for nearly three decades. She joins GSCS from Lamar County Schools where she served as the assistant principal and pre-k director of Lamar County Primary School for 10 years. Before that role, Dr. Nash served as an assistant principal for Crisp and Morgan County Schools. She also served as an elementary school teacher and after-school program site coordinator.

Dr. Nash earned her bachelor's degree in Early Childhood Education from Mercer University, her master's degree in Early Childhood Education from Georgia Southwestern University, and her specialist and doctorate degree in Educational Leadership and Administration from Argosy University.

Dr. Nash stated, "It is truly an honor and a blessing to serve as the Principal of Jordan Hill Elementary. I am excited to join a school community that is deeply committed to student success and dedicated to creating meaningful partnerships with families."

"Dr. Stephanie Nash joins us with the necessary talent, leadership skills and experience to benefit Jordan Hill and keep it on an upward track. I look forward to her impact and continued success," stated GSCS Superintendent Dr. Donald Warren.
