Pruitt Appointed GSCS Deputy Superintendent

Griffin, GA – On Tuesday, February 24, the Griffin-Spalding Board of Education appointed Lindy Pruitt as the deputy superintendent of the Griffin-Spalding County School System (GSCS).

Pruitt has served GSCS since she began teaching in 1997. She served as a middle and high school principal for almost 20 years. Since 2021, she has been the Executive Officer for Secondary Education, providing district-level leadership and supervision for nine schools. During her tenure, Pruitt has a proven record of improving College and Career Ready Performance Index (CCRPI) performance, graduation rates, instructional quality and school climate.

Pruitt holds a bachelor's degree in Middle Grades Education and a master's degree in Educational Administration and Supervision from the University of West Georgia. She holds a Gifted Endorsement and completed the University of Georgia's District Office Certification Program in 2013. She pursued her Doctorate in Educational Leadership at Nova Southeastern University, completing all coursework, and earned a Leadership and Management Certificate from the Harvard Principal Center.

"Having served in multiple leadership roles within our district, I am incredibly proud to continue this work as deputy superintendent. I care deeply about our schools and our community, and I am committed to ensuring that every decision we make keeps students at the center," stated Pruitt.

GSCS Superintendent Dr. Donald Warren stated, "Ms. Pruitt is a true product of GSCS. She has been a student, educator, coach, administrator and supervisor. She has extensive experience and has demonstrated the ability to lead with excellence. Ms. Pruitt possesses the knowledge, experience and drive to be our deputy superintendent. I look forward to working with her collaboratively to continue moving this district forward."
