Lubin Named Principal of Cowan Road Middle School

Griffin, GA – On March 31, the Griffin-Spalding County School System (GSCS) Board of Education approved the superintendent's recommendation to appoint Theresa Lubin as the 2026-27 principal of Cowan Road Middle School (CRMS).

Lubin has 27 years of experience in education. She returns to GSCS from serving as assistant principal of Jackson High School since 2020, and as principal of Calhoun County High School for two years. Prior to those roles, Lubin served GSCS for 16-years as assistant principal at A.Z. Kelsey Middle School, Kennedy Road Middle, Atkinson Elementary, Rehoboth Road Middle and Spalding High School.

Lubin earned a bachelor's and master's degree in Education from Albany State University and a master's and specialist degree in Educational Leadership from Georgia College and State University.

"My array of experiences across grade levels and differing school cultures have prepared me to become principal of Cowan Road Middle School. As an agent of change, the leader must ensure that transformation is tempered with compassion, firmness and flexibility. I stand ready to lead the staff and students to a new era of academia and progress in my community," stated Lubin.

"Mrs. Lubin joins us with extensive experience and leadership skills. Her expertise lies in strengthening school culture to improve academic outcomes. I look forward to her impact at Cowan Road Middle," stated GSCS Superintendent Dr. Donald Warren.
