

Michelle Paul is a graduate of Swartz Creek High School with more than 35 years of experience in education, including 10 years as a classroom teacher and over 25 years in educational leadership. She holds a Master's degree in Educational Leadership from Eastern Michigan University and currently serves as the Executive Director of Curriculum and Instruction for Swartz Creek Schools.

Prior to this role, she spent 14 years as Principal of Syring Elementary School, leading the building in both K–5 and K–2 configurations.

Throughout her career, Michelle has held leadership positions at every level of the district, including Middle School Assistant Principal, Principal of the Adult and Alternative High School, and Community Education Director. She is widely recognized for building strong, collaborative teams focused on continuous improvement and student-centered outcomes.

As a lifelong member of the Swartz Creek community, Michelle is deeply committed to student success and meaningful family and community engagement.