PRINCIPAL'S LETTER

Good Afternoon Apollo,

Well, it was not the week we wanted but it was not totally unexpected either! I hope you have been able to stay safe, warm, and have kept cabin fever at bay! I also hope you are able to keep whatever illness is going around out of your home! It hit me this week and was no fun at all!

While DCPS@Home days are not nearly the same experience as being on Campus, I want to thank our Teachers for working hard to make sure these days are not wasted and that we get the best possible result from a challenging situation. Also, a word of thanks to our Students for logging on and participating during these last three days! Hopefully we have reached the end of this type of work for the school year!

I would also like to thank DCPS Maintenance for the work they have done on our parking lots. There is still lots of snow on them because as we know it's not melting, but the work they have done to make the lots usable is great! Also, members of Apollo's Custodial Team were joined by members of some of our Faculty/Staff to help get some of the sidewalks clean. There is still lots of snow all over our Campus but thanks to the work of lots of people, we are much better off than we were to start the week!

As far as school events go, we have no choice but to continue to take things day by day. Please stay tuned to our website and facebook page for updates on events and the status of school for next week.

I hope everyone has a great weekend and fingers crossed we get to see everyone back on Campus Monday!

Stay safe and warm!

Go Eagles!

Respectfully,

Mr. Bob W. Dych
