

Montwood High School Students Ambassadors Club Parent Form

As the parent of, _____ I hereby give my child permission to participate in all activities of Student Ambassador’s club and understand that my child is required to attend at least 2 meetings per month. Additionally, he/she must follow all guidelines of the organization and district policy.

Who are Student Ambassadors?

Student Ambassadors are student leaders within Montwood High School. These students have demonstrated strong academics and a commitment to community service. As role models to their peers, Ambassadors are responsible for representing the society in their schools and inspiring their peers to get involved in school as well as community activities that interest them the most.

What are the benefits of becoming a Student Ambassador?

The Student Ambassadors at Montwood High School will have the opportunity to develop a variety of highly sought after of skills. These skills include leadership, team building, communication, and management. Skills such as these are in high demand by employers and universities.
