Mission Statement

The Mission of Antioch Adult Education is to provide quality lifelong educational opportunities and services responding to the unique needs of individuals and the community.

Continuing Your Education

Antioch Adult Education offers numerous classes to adults continuing their education. Adult students can complete work toward a high school diploma, prepare for the General Education Development (GED) test, or gain valuable job skills. Antioch Adult Education also offers a comprehensive English program for students learning English as a second language. Off campus classes are also available for parents of students of the Antioch Unified School District. Ask for more information.

Admission

Courses are open to adults 18 years of age or over, of all educational backgrounds, and all cultural heritages. There is open enrollment in most classes. Antioch Adult Education provides access to all qualified disabled persons. Regular daily attendance is necessary if students expect to complete the courses or program in which they are enrolled.

Fees & Textbooks

Programs authorized by the State of California are partially or fully supported by taxes. All other classes and programs are self-supporting. The entire cost of instructors' salaries, use of facilities and operations and clerical and administrative support is built into the fee structure. Every effort has been made to provide classes for free or to minimize the fees.

Laboratory Fees

In classes where instructional materials are provided or additional expenses are incurred by the school, a laboratory fee is charged. All fees are payable at the time of registration.

Refunds

Full refund if class is canceled by AAE. No refunds after class has begun. To drop or reschedule a class, AAE must be notified 2 business days (Monday through Friday) prior to start of class. Students may reschedule a class one time with a $10 processing fee.

Class Cancellations

Classes may be cancelled under the following conditions:

- If by the second meeting, there are not more than 12 students present
- If student attendance drops below 10 students

Advisor Services

Advisor services are available for all Adult Education students pursuing high school diplomas, GED and ESL certificates. Please come in and set up an appointment. Most classes are open entry—open exit so that, unless the classes are full, new enrollments are accepted throughout the entire semester. Students attending daytime high school classes must receive permission from their high school administrators prior to enrolling in Adult Education classes.

Campus Policies

Photos or videos of students taken on campus events become property of Antioch Adult Education for use in print publications, online, and other marketing media. To be exempt, please send a written request to the office administrator. Students will not be identified by name without the student's permission. Video recording of lectures are not allowed without the instructor's permission.

Board Policy and State Law prohibits the use of tobacco products on any part of our campuses, including all parking areas.

English As A Second Language

English As A Second Language (ESL)

Learn English to improve employment opportunities, to help your children with their homework, and to be more involved in your community. Instruction in these classes provides assistance to students learning to speak, understand, read, and write English as their second language.

Inglés Como Segundo Idioma (ESL)

Aprenda Ingles para mejorar las oportunidades de empleo y ayudar a sus hijos con sus tareas. En estas clases se le dara asistencia al estudiante a aprender hablar, entender, leer y escribir Ingles como segundo idioma.

Family Literacy Program

Family Literacy classes provide English as a Second Language (ESL) academic and literacy instruction to AUSD parents at their children's school. Parents learn to communicate with school staff and develop academic language skills to become more involved in their children's learning.

Programa de Alfabetización Familiar

Las clases de alfabetización familiar brindan instrucción académica y de alfabetización de inglés como segundo idioma (ESL) a los padres del AUSD en la escuela de sus hijos. Los padres aprenden a comunicarse con el personal de la escuela y desarrollan habilidades de lenguaje académico para involucrarse más en el aprendizaje de sus hijos.

Spring Semester 2023 Schedule of Classes

Workforce Classes

Career Opportunities

Antioch Adult Education is looking at providing more opportunities for adults with respect to career technical education. We are adding computer and accounting classes to broaden the options for adults looking at engaging new careers. We are also piloting a Culinary program this semester with the hopes of having classes offered for the Fall of 2023. We are continuing to work with our local Workforce Development Board and with surveys of our students to provide more programs focused on employment opportunities in the East County.

AUSD Employment Opportunities for Students

Antioch Unified School District is our local education agency. We are committed to support students in Antioch transitioning into adulthood with opportunities for employment. We also focus on the current employees of AUSD to provide classes that will benefit their individual goals and bettering of their work situations. We are also partnering with AUSD to find and promote local job opportunities within AUSD, one of the largest employers in Antioch.

COMING SOON AAE Culinary Program

This semester we are piloting a Culinary class in the afternoons, Tuesday through Thursday, 4 pm to 6 pm. We are hoping to build a program focused on providing entry level culinary skills to aspiring chefs. We have a full production kitchen on site and will be making meals, desserts, homemade pastas and our own breads. The hope is to grow the class into a full day program supporting both AAE and Prospects High School students. We will begin marketing the class over the summer of 2023, for the Fall 2023 school year.

Uniform Complaint Procedures

The Governing Board recognize that the District has primary responsibility for insuring that it complies with State and Federal Laws and regulations governing educational programs. The District shall investigate and seek to resolve complaints at the local level. The District shall follow uniform complaint procedures when addressing complaints alleging unlawful discrimination or failure to comply with State or Federal law in Adult Basic Education, and Special Education Programs.

Filing of Complaint

Any individual, public agency or organization may file a written complaint of alleged noncompliance. The complaint shall be presented to the Superintendent or designee, who will then give it to the appropriate compliance officer. The Superintendent or designee will maintain a log of complaints received, providing each with a code number and a date stamp. If a complainant is unable to put a complaint in writing due to conditions such as illiteracy or other handicaps, District staff shall help him/her to file the complaint.

Title IX Coordinator

Associate Superintendent Education Services

Antioch Unified School District office, 925-779-7500

Harassment

The District is committed to providing an educational environment free of harassment and unlawful discrimination. The District maintains a strict policy prohibiting harassment and differentiated treatment of students because of sex, race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical handicap, medical condition, marital status, age or any other basis protected by Federal, State or local law, ordinance or regulation. All such harassment is unlawful. The District's policy of anti-harassment toward students applies to students enrolled in the District and all persons employed by the District. Unlawful harassment in any form, including verbal, physical and visual conduct, threats, demands and retaliation, is prohibited. Violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action, which may include discharge for employees, and expulsion for students, depending on the seriousness of the violation. Students who feel aggrieved because of conduct that may constitute harassment should directly inform the person engaging in such conduct that it is offensive, or if the student does not feel comfortable or is unable to talk to the person engaging in such activity, the student should report the incident to the School Principal or designee.
