🎓 College & Career Readiness at Byrnes High School

✅ How Can a Student Be Identified as College Ready?

A student is considered college-ready if they meet one or more of these criteria:

- ACT: Composite score of 20 or higher (highest single administration score).
- SAT: Total score of 1040 or higher (highest single administration score).
- AP: Score of 3 or higher on any Advanced Placement exam.
- Dual Enrollment: Completion of 6 or more college credit hours with a grade of C or higher in approved courses.

💼 How Can a Student Be Identified as Career Ready?

A student is considered career-ready if they meet one or more of these criteria:

- CTE Completer + earn a national/state industry credential.
- WIN SC Career Ready Test: Earn a Level 3 Credential or higher.
- ASVAB: Earn a score of 31 or higher.
- Work-Based Learning: Successfully complete a state-approved evaluation, including:
    - Training agreement with clear objectives and at least 40 hours of practical experience.
    - Placement aligned with the student's IGP career goal.
    - Industry evaluation based on world-class skills from the Profile of the SC Graduate.
    - Completion of at least one unit in the related career pathway.
- SC Employability Credential: Students with disabilities may qualify by completing the South Carolina High School Employability Credential program as outlined in their IEP.

🔎 Learn More

- South Carolina CTE Pathways: ed.sc.gov CATE Programs
- ASVAB Information: asvabprogram.com
- SC Employability Credential: thesccredential.org

📌 Remember: Meeting College or Career Readiness criteria is an important step toward graduation and preparing for your future success!