

The Graduation Celebration

Seventieth Annual Commencement

Tuesday, the twentieth of May

Two thousand twenty-five

Half past seven o'clock in the evening

Gibbs Stadium, Wofford College

Mrs. Erin Boswell Greenway, Principal

James F. Byrnes High School Awards

Palmetto Gold Award

Palmetto Silver Award

South Carolina SAT Improvement Incentive Award

Advanced Placement Honor Roll School

James F. Byrnes High School Alma Mater

'Neath these Carolina skies
On Earth's fairest land,
Here our Alma Mater lies
Held in God's own hand.
May His blessings keep thee safe
May Thy children be
True to these ideals we've learned
James Byrnes High from thee.

Chorus:

To our Alma Mater bring songs of love and praise;
Grateful hearts will not forget happy high school days....
Rally 'round the grey and blue! Sound the rebel cry!
Loyal sons and daughters true of James F. Byrnes High.

History of the Ceremonial Mace

For centuries, in academic and ecclesiastical processions, a mace has been carried by a marshal to symbolize the official opening and closing of a formal event. The 2011 presentation of the mace, donated by the classes of 1956-59, formally incorporated this prestigious piece of regalia, along with its procession, into the academic processions at commencements for all future generations of James F. Byrnes High School.

The senior class of 2025 appreciates your attendance at our commencement, but because this is our final time together as a class, we feel that it is not the time for individual rejoicing. Therefore, we request that all applause and celebration be held until all seniors have received their recognition.

 Thank you for respecting this request.

As a congressman and senator he demonstrated outstanding talents and was acclaimed generally as the most effective legislator of his day.

He sat with distinction upon our highest court but unhesitatingly resigned to devote himself selflessly first, as a war mobilizer to the winning of World War II and later, as Secretary of State to directing our foreign policy towards the goal of world peace. In all these undertakings, he reflected credit and honor both upon his native state and upon himself.

Our school honors him specially though because as Governor of South Carolina, he fathered an educational renaissance in his native state, the benefits of which will endure as long as South Carolina itself.

U.S. Senator 1930–1941 • Supreme Court Justice 1942–1943
Secretary of State 1945–1947 • Governor of South Carolina 1951–1955
