A.I. #3 OLD BUSINESS

- a. The Council and Commission conducted labor negotiations. information was sent out under separate cover.

According to State Statutes, there are certain exceptions to the Open Meeting Law, which allow councils to close meetings.

Labor negotiations under PELRA Minn. Stat. § 13D.03. A meeting to consider strategies for labor negotiations, including negotiation strategies or development or discussion of labor-negotiation proposals, may be closed. However, the actual negotiations must be done at an open meeting if a quorum of the council is present.

The following procedure must be used to close a meeting under this exception:

- The council must decide to close the meeting by a majority vote at a public meeting and must announce the time and place of the closed meeting.
- Before closing the meeting, the council must state on the record the specific grounds permitting the meeting to be closed and describe the subject to be discussed.
- A written record of all people present at the closed meeting must be available to the public after the closed meeting.
- The meeting must be recorded.
- The recording must be kept for two years after the contract is signed.
- The recording becomes public after all labor agreements are signed by the city council for the current budget period.

If an action claiming that other public business was transacted at the closed meeting is brought during the time the tape is not public, the court will review the recording privately. If the court finds no violation of the open meeting law the action will be dismissed and the recording will be preserved in court records until it becomes available to the public. If the court determines there may have been a violation, the entire recording may be introduced at the trial. However, the court may issue appropriate protective orders requested by either party.

A motion was made by Mr. Travis Frieler, seconded by Ms. Wieling and unanimously carried to close the meeting. A motion was then made by Mr. Finken, seconded by Mr. Kraemer and unanimously carried to close the meeting.

The Council and Commission continued labor negotiation discussions.

A motion was made by Mr. Kraemer, seconded by Mr. Finken and unanimously carried to open the meeting at 6:00 p.m.
