PVJH

CHEER

Huge shoutout to the PVJH cheer squads, who absolutely crushed it and brought home a second-place trophy for Varsity and a third-place trophy for the JH squad at the Jeff & Craig Cheer Championship on Saturday, September 12!

The junior high team put together a really fast and high-energy routine that won over the judges. Taking home the runner-up spots capped off a great weekend for our whole cheer program, especially since both the junior high and varsity squads placed after having a big send-off showcase in our home gym.

The team is already back to work practicing for their next big competition, the J&C Game Day Championship on October 31. Great job, Panthers!

INTERVIEWING STAFF

Mr. Pettigrew

Mr. Pettigrew says that he really enjoys reading golfing, mowing, lifting weights, and playing with his dogs in his free time. His favorite thing about teaching students is being able to impact their lives and watch them reach their full potential.
One person he has always looked up to is his dad because he has always been there for him and inspired Mr. Pettigrew to be a teacher and a coach like him.
One question he dislikes when students ask him is, “Can I use the pencil sharpener?” He says, “You don’t need to ask me; just get up and use it.”

GUESS THAT CUTIE!!

Quote of the Week!

“Everything that irritates us about others can lead us to an understanding of ourselves.”

-Carl Jung

COUNTRY OF THE WEEK

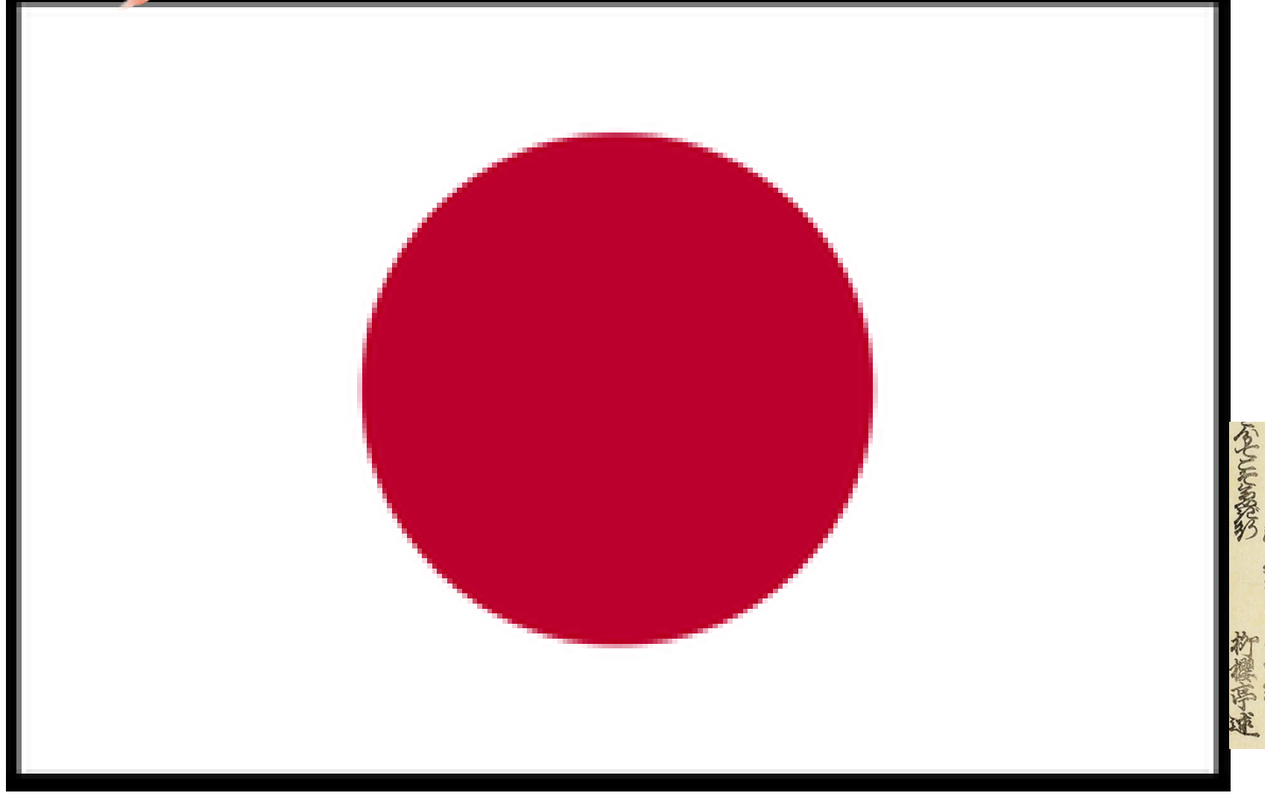

This week's star country is... Japan! 🎌 Known for the majestic Mount Fuji, dazzling cherry blossoms, ancient temples, and a pop culture that's off the charts, Japan is a whirlwind of wonders.

When it comes to chow time, Japan serves up ramen, sushi, curry rice, and yakitori that'll make your taste buds do a happy dance. Sushi, where vinegared rice teams up with seafood, veggies, or eggs, is a must-try!

Standing tall at 3,776 meters (or 12,388 feet for our feet-loving friends), the iconic Mount Fuji is Japan's crown jewel.

And let's talk tunes! Japan's music scene is buzzing with J-pop, traditional folk, and even a sprinkle of retro city pop to get you grooving.

Nestled in East Asia, the land of the rising sun speaks the language of... you guessed it, Japanese, with 99% of the population chatting away in it. Say konnichiwa to Japan! 👋
