

Employee's Withholding Certificate

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay.

Give Form W-4 to your employer.

Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.

OMB No. 1545-0074

2025

Step 1: Enter Personal Information	(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
	Address		Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov .
	City or town, state, and ZIP code
	(c) ☐ Single or Married filing separately ☐ Married filing jointly or Qualifying surviving spouse ☐ Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

TIP: Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine the most accurate withholding for the rest of the year if: you are completing this form after the beginning of the year; expect to work only part of the year; or have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), dependents, other income (not from jobs), deductions, or credits. Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Complete Steps 2–4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, and when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

Step 2: Multiple Jobs or Spouse Works	Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs. Do only one of the following. (a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for the most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4). If you or your spouse have self-employment income, use this option; or (b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below; or (c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is generally more accurate than (b) if pay at the lower paying job is more than half of the pay at the higher paying job. Otherwise, (b) is more accurate ☐

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependent and Other Credits	If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly): Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 $ _____ Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 $ _____ Add the amounts above for qualifying children and other dependents. You may add to this the amount of any other credits. Enter the total here	3	$
Step 4 (optional): Other Adjustments	(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income	4(a)	$
	(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here	4(b)	$
	(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period	4(c)	$

Step 5: Sign Here	Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this certificate, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true, correct, and complete.

Introduction

You are receiving this notice because you have recently become covered under a group health, dental and/or vision plan. This notice contains important information about your right to COBRA continuation coverage, which is a temporary extension of coverage through EGID. This notice generally explains COBRA continuation coverage, when it may become available to you and your family and what you need to do to protect the right to receive it. When you become eligible for COBRA, you may also become eligible for other coverage options that may cost less than COBRA continuation coverage.

The right to COBRA continuation coverage was created by a federal law, the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985. COBRA continuation coverage can become available to you when you would otherwise lose your group health coverage. It can also become available to other members of your family who are covered through EGID when they would otherwise lose their group coverage. For additional information about your rights and obligations through EGID and under federal law, you should review your plan handbook or contact EGID.

You may have other options available to you when you lose group health coverage. For example, you may be eligible to buy an individual plan through the health insurance marketplace. By enrolling in coverage through the marketplace, you may qualify for lower monthly premiums and out-of-pocket costs. Additionally, you may qualify for a 30-day special enrollment period for another group health plan for which you are eligible, such as a spouse's plan, even if that plan generally does not accept late enrollees.

What is COBRA continuation coverage?

COBRA continuation coverage is a continuation of coverage when coverage would otherwise end because of a life event known as a qualifying event. Specific qualifying events are listed later in this notice. After a qualifying event, COBRA continuation coverage must be offered to each person who is a qualified beneficiary. You, your spouse and your dependent children could become qualified beneficiaries if coverage is lost because of the qualifying event. Qualified beneficiaries who elect COBRA continuation coverage must pay for COBRA continuation coverage.

If you are an employee, you will become a qualified beneficiary if you lose your coverage through EGID because of these qualifying events:

- Your hours of employment are reduced.
- Your employment ends for any reason other than gross misconduct.

If you are the spouse of an employee (or former employee), you will become a qualified beneficiary if you lose your coverage through EGID because of these qualifying events:

- Your spouse dies.
- Your spouse's hours of employment are reduced.
- Your spouse's employment ends for any reason other than gross misconduct.
- Your spouse (former employee) becomes entitled to Medicare benefits (Part A, Part B or both).
- You become divorced or legally separated from your spouse.

Your dependent children will become qualified beneficiaries if they lose coverage because of these qualifying events:

- You die.
- Your hours of employment are reduced.
- Your employment ends for any reason other than gross misconduct.
- You become entitled to Medicare benefits (Part A, Part B or both).
- You and your spouse divorce or legally separate.
- The child stops being eligible for coverage under the plan as a dependent child.

Sometimes, filing a proceeding in bankruptcy under Title 11 of the United States Code can be a qualifying event. If a proceeding in bankruptcy is filed with respect to your employer, and that bankruptcy results in the loss of coverage of any retired employee covered through EGID, the retired employee will become a qualified beneficiary. The retired employee's spouse, surviving spouse, and dependent children will also become qualified beneficiaries if bankruptcy results in the loss of their coverage.

When is COBRA continuation coverage available?

EGID will offer COBRA continuation coverage to qualified beneficiaries only after they have been notified in writing that a qualifying event has occurred. When the qualifying event is the end of employment or reduction of hours of employment, your death, the commencement of a proceeding in bankruptcy with respect to the employer, or you become entitled to Medicare benefits (Part A, Part B or both), the employer must notify EGID of the qualifying event.

You must give notice of some qualifying events.

For all other qualifying events (divorce or legal separation of you and your spouse or a dependent child losing eligibility for coverage as a dependent child), you must notify EGID within 30 days after the qualifying event occurs. You must provide this notice to the insurance/benefits coordinator at your employing agency. The notification must be in writing; a telephone call is not sufficient. You may also be required to provide documentation or other required information.

How is COBRA continuation coverage provided?

Once EGID receives notice that a qualifying event has occurred, COBRA continuation coverage will be offered to each of the qualified beneficiaries. Each qualified beneficiary will have a right to elect independent COBRA continuation coverage. Covered employees may elect COBRA continuation coverage on behalf of their spouses, and parents may elect COBRA continuation coverage on behalf of their children.

COBRA continuation coverage is a temporary continuation of coverage that generally lasts for 18 months due to employment termination or reduction of hours of work. Certain qualifying events or a second qualifying event during the initial period of coverage may permit a beneficiary to receive a maximum of 36 months of coverage. There are also ways in which this 18-month period of COBRA continuation coverage can be extended:

Disability extension of 18-month period of continuation coverage

If you or anyone in your family covered by EGID is determined by the Social Security Administration to be disabled and you notify EGID within 60 days of the SSA determination and before the end of the first 18 months of continuation coverage, you and your entire family may be entitled to receive up to an additional 11 months of COBRA continuation coverage for a total maximum of 29 months. The disability would have to have started at some time before the 60th day of COBRA continuation coverage and must last at least until the end of the 18-month period of continuation coverage.

A copy of the Social Security disability determination must be sent to EGID, P.O. Box 11137, Oklahoma City, OK 73136-9998 before the expiration of the 18 months of COBRA, and within 60 days from the later of:

1. The date of the Social Security Administration disability determination.
2. The date of the qualifying event.
3. The loss of coverage date.
4. The date the qualified beneficiary is informed of the obligation to provide the disability notice.

Second qualifying event extension of 18-month period of continuation coverage

If your family experiences another qualifying event during the 18 months of COBRA continuation coverage, the spouse and dependent children in your family can receive up to 18 additional months of COBRA continuation coverage, for a maximum of 36 months, if notice of the second qualifying event is properly given to EGID. This extension may be available to your spouse and any dependent children receiving continuation coverage if you die, become entitled to Medicare benefits (Part A, Part B or both), get divorced or legally separated, or if the dependent child stops being eligible as a dependent child, but only if the event would have caused the spouse or dependent child to lose coverage through EGID had the first qualifying event not occurred.

Are there other coverage options besides COBRA continuation coverage?

Yes. Instead of enrolling in COBRA continuation coverage, there may be other coverage options for you and your family through the health insurance marketplace, Medicaid or other group health plan coverage options such as a spouse's plan through what is called a special enrollment period. Some of these options may cost less than COBRA continuation coverage. You can learn more about many of these options at HealthCare.gov.

If you have questions

Questions concerning your coverage or your COBRA continuation coverage rights should be addressed to the contact or contacts identified below. Addresses and phone numbers of regional and district EBSA offices are available through EBSA's website. For more information about the marketplace, visit HealthCare.gov.

Keep your plan informed of address changes

To protect your family's rights, keep EGID informed of any changes in the addresses of family members. You should also keep a copy of any notices you send to EGID.

Plan contact information

Please contact the insurance coordinator at your employer. If you have additional questions about COBRA, send written questions to OMES EGID, Attention: Member Services, P.O. Provided, if the beneficiary for the $18,000 death benefit differs from the sole beneficiary of the member's account, no beneficiary shall have the option to choose Option 2 (joint annuitant) retirement, if applicable, in lieu of the death benefit. If no beneficiary is named in Section 2, the death benefit shall be paid to the beneficiary(ies) named in Section 1.

A. PRIMARY BENEFICIARY(IES): It is very important to clearly indicate your primary beneficiary(ies). Upon the death of any designated primary beneficiary, his/her interest shall pass to the surviving primary beneficiary(ies). If you have more than four contingent beneficiaries, use a copy of this page to list additional beneficiaries.

I hereby designate:

Revoking Previous Designation of Beneficiary: By making these elections, I hereby revoke all other former designations made by me and expressly reserve the right to make other and further changes at any time I may elect as provided by law. Introduction

You are receiving this notice because you have recently become covered under a group health, dental and/or vision plan. This notice contains important information about your right to COBRA continuation coverage, which is a temporary extension of coverage through EGID. This notice generally explains COBRA continuation coverage, when it may become available to you and your family and what you need to do to protect the right to receive it. When you become eligible for COBRA, you may also become eligible for other coverage options that may cost less than COBRA continuation coverage.

The right to COBRA continuation coverage was created by a federal law, the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985. COBRA continuation coverage can become available to you when you would otherwise lose your group health coverage. It can also become available to other members of your family who are covered through EGID when they would otherwise lose their group coverage. For additional information about your rights and obligations through EGID and under federal law, you should review your plan handbook or contact EGID.

You may have other options available to you when you lose group health coverage. For example, you may be eligible to buy an individual plan through the health insurance marketplace. By enrolling in coverage through the marketplace, you may qualify for lower monthly premiums and out-of-pocket costs. Additionally, you may qualify for a 30-day special enrollment period for another group health plan for which you are eligible, such as a spouse's plan, even if that plan generally does not accept late enrollees.

What is COBRA continuation coverage?

COBRA continuation coverage is a continuation of coverage when coverage would otherwise end because of a life event known as a qualifying event. Specific qualifying events are listed later in this notice. After a qualifying event, COBRA continuation coverage must be offered to each person who is a qualified beneficiary. You, your spouse and your dependent children could become qualified beneficiaries if coverage is lost because of the qualifying event. Qualified beneficiaries who elect COBRA continuation coverage must pay for COBRA continuation coverage.

If you are an employee, you will become a qualified beneficiary if you lose your coverage through EGID because of these qualifying events:

- Your hours of employment are reduced.
- Your employment ends for any reason other than gross misconduct.

If you are the spouse of an employee (or former employee), you will become a qualified beneficiary if you lose your coverage through EGID because of these qualifying events:

- Your spouse dies.
- Your spouse's hours of employment are reduced.
- Your spouse's employment ends for any reason other than gross misconduct.
- Your spouse (former employee) becomes entitled to Medicare benefits (Part A, Part B or both).
- You become divorced or legally separated from your spouse.

Your dependent children will become qualified beneficiaries if they lose coverage because of these qualifying events:

- You die.
- Your hours of employment are reduced.
- Your employment ends for any reason other than gross misconduct.
- You become entitled to Medicare benefits (Part A, Part B or both).
- You and your spouse divorce or legally separate.
- The child stops being eligible for coverage under the plan as a dependent child.

Sometimes, filing a proceeding in bankruptcy under Title 11 of the United States Code can be a qualifying event. If a proceeding in bankruptcy is filed with respect to your employer, and that bankruptcy results in the loss of coverage of any retired employee covered through EGID, the retired employee will become a qualified beneficiary. The retired employee's spouse, surviving spouse, and dependent children will also become qualified beneficiaries if bankruptcy results in the loss of their coverage.

When is COBRA continuation coverage available?

EGID will offer COBRA continuation coverage to qualified beneficiaries only after they have been notified in writing that a qualifying event has occurred. When the qualifying event is the end of employment or reduction of hours of employment, your death, the commencement of a proceeding in bankruptcy with respect to the employer, or you become entitled to Medicare benefits (Part A, Part B or both), the employer must notify EGID of the qualifying event.

You must give notice of some qualifying events.

For all other qualifying events (divorce or legal separation of you and your spouse or a dependent child losing eligibility for coverage as a dependent child), you must notify EGID within 30 days after the qualifying event occurs. You must provide this notice to the insurance/benefits coordinator at your employing agency. The notification must be in writing; a telephone call is not sufficient. You may also be required to provide documentation or other required information.

How is COBRA continuation coverage provided?

Once EGID receives notice that a qualifying event has occurred, COBRA continuation coverage will be offered to each of the qualified beneficiaries. Each qualified beneficiary will have a right to elect independent COBRA continuation coverage. Covered employees may elect COBRA continuation coverage on behalf of their spouses, and parents may elect COBRA continuation coverage on behalf of their children.

COBRA continuation coverage is a temporary continuation of coverage that generally lasts for 18 months due to employment termination or reduction of hours of work. Certain qualifying events or a second qualifying event during the initial period of coverage may permit a beneficiary to receive a maximum of 36 months of coverage. There are also ways in which this 18-month period of COBRA continuation coverage can be extended:

Disability extension of 18-month period of continuation coverage

If you or anyone in your family covered by EGID is determined by the Social Security Administration to be disabled and you notify EGID within 60 days of the SSA determination and before the end of the first 18 months of continuation coverage, you and your entire family may be entitled to receive up to an additional 11 months of COBRA continuation coverage for a total maximum of 29 months. The disability would have to have started at some time before the 60th day of COBRA continuation coverage and must last at least until the end of the 18-month period of continuation coverage.

A copy of the Social Security disability determination must be sent to EGID, P.O. Box 11137, Oklahoma City, OK 73136-9998 before the expiration of the 18 months of COBRA, and within 60 days from the later of:

1. The date of the Social Security Administration disability determination.
2. The date of the qualifying event.
3. The loss of coverage date.
4. The date the qualified beneficiary is informed of the obligation to provide the disability notice.

Second qualifying event extension of 18-month period of continuation coverage

If your family experiences another qualifying event during the 18 months of COBRA continuation coverage, the spouse and dependent children in your family can receive up to 18 additional months of COBRA continuation coverage, for a maximum of 36 months, if notice of the second qualifying event is properly given to EGID. This extension may be available to your spouse and any dependent children receiving continuation coverage if you die, become entitled to Medicare benefits (Part A, Part B or both), get divorced or legally separated, or if the dependent child stops being eligible as a dependent child, but only if the event would have caused the spouse or dependent child to lose coverage through EGID had the first qualifying event not occurred.

Are there other coverage options besides COBRA continuation coverage?

Yes. Instead of enrolling in COBRA continuation coverage, there may be other coverage options for you and your family through the health insurance marketplace, Medicaid or other group health plan coverage options such as a spouse's plan through what is called a special enrollment period. Some of these options may cost less than COBRA continuation coverage. You can learn more about many of these options at HealthCare.gov.
