

Teacher of the Year

Allison Oglesby
Third Grade

I have worked at Foxbank Elementary my entire teaching career, this year being my sixth. All of my teaching years have been spent in third grade! I am currently working on getting my Masters Plus 30 in Leadership to further my experience and knowledge in and out of the classroom.

I believe it is important to serve my community. Currently, I am serving as the Grade Chair for my third grade team. I also help coach Run Club at Foxbank for our fourth and fifth graders and I am beginning horse riding lessons for all ages for my local community. In the past, I hosted a teacher cadet from Berkeley High School and a student teacher working on practicum hours during college.

My classroom is student centered. I believe in giving students opportunities to share their thinking in creative ways. I encourage students to collaborate.
