

MARRINGTON

MIDDLE SCHOOL OF THE ARTS

Students are expected to follow all expectations outlined in the 2026-2027 Berkeley County Student Handbook. However, below is additional detailed information specific to Marrington Middle School of the Arts.

MARINERS

OWN IT

TODAY I PLEDGE TO:

OWN MY CHOICES

OWN MY WORDS

OWN MY ACTIONS

OWN MY IMPACT

I CHOOSE TO

OWN IT

EVERY DAY

MARRINGTON

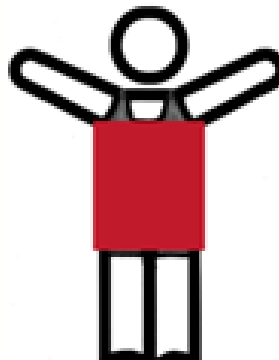

MIDDLE SCHOOL OF THE ARTS

Dress Code:

RED ZONE:

All students must be covered from armpit to mid-thigh, with shoulder straps (no strapless or off the shoulder tops permitted).

Coverage is all the way around the body. No tears or openings in the armpit or thigh area. Visible undergarments are prohibited.

- Sunglasses, sweatshirt hoods, and hats are not permitted to be worn in the building.
- Clothing that is disruptive, vulgar, disparaging, OR refers to alcohol, tobacco, drugs, weapons, sex, or illegal activity is not permitted.
- Administration has the right to prevent students from wearing clothing or items that have or could lead to disruption or interfere with learning.
- Students must follow all elements of BCSD Policy JCBD.

Late Work:

Student-specific accommodations will be taken into consideration when enforcing this expectation.

All teachers will accept late work in all categories except practice assignments up to 5 days late with a maximum possible grade of 70%.

Bookbags:

- 6th grade students will travel with bookbags and should keep their belongings organized within that bookbag. 6th grade students will store their bookbag near their desk inside the classroom.
- 7th and 8th grade students will utilize lockers and will travel only with what they need to each class with time to stop at their locker periodically throughout the day. Bookbags should not be in classrooms unless there is a principal-approved accommodation or special activity.