Daily News

- Today, November 11th, is nationally recognized as Veterans Day. Veterans day was initially created to mark the end of World War One in 1918. This occasion evolved to recognize the service given from all U.S. Veterans, living or deceased. Former president Woodrow Wilson, in his 1919 speech, said that "Armistice Day will be filled with solemn pride in the heroism of those who died in the country's service, and with gratitude for the victory, both because of the thing from which it has freed us and because of the opportunity it has given America." Central High School's Air Force Junior ROTC invites you to join us in thanking all U.S. Veterans for the sacrifices they have made serving our country."
- A very belated HAPPY DIWALI to all Hindus, Sikhs, Jains, and Buddhists who celebrate! Diwali originated in the Indian subcontinent and developed over centuries to become the Hindu festival of lights. It symbolizes the spiritual "victory of light over darkness, good over evil, and knowledge over ignorance." This year, it was celebrated Sunday, November 8, although it traditionally lasts five days. So again, happy Diwali!
- The Central High NAACP will be having a membership drive all three lunches in front of cafeteria today, any questions contact Coach Bowman in room 208
- All students 18 and under can receive dinner in the cafeteria from 4:00 – 5:00 pm Monday-Thursday. Students must have their ID number. Bus service will not be delayed for students receiving dinner.

- Congratulations to the Lady Tigers on their wins last night! Varsity won 82-53 and JV won 26-14! Today is also National Signing Day for College Basketball. Congratulations to signees Rosie Onyango & Jada Crawford!
- Congratulations to our Central Tigers boys basketball team on a 61–58 road win over Marion last night! The Tigers battled back from a six-point halftime deficit to bring home the victory. Brandon Wright led the way with 19 points, followed by Tra Aleem with 17. Tre Hope added 9 points, and Jamie Dunn contributed 8 points and 8 rebounds. Great job showing toughness and finding a way to win, Tigers! Brandon Wright will be signing his National Letter of Intent to play college basketball at the University of Arkansas Tech today at 11:00 AM. If time permits, please join us in the gym to celebrate this achievement.
