

Michael Caiazzo Memorial Award

$1000 award given to a graduating two graduating seniors who meet the following criteria:

This award is being given in memory of Michael Caiazzo. Michael was a kind, funny, loving, athletic and musically talented young man who left this Earth too early. He was genuine and compassionate. He was often described as not having a mean bone in his body. He loved playing the drums and all sports, especially baseball, hockey, and basketball. Michael was many things to many people, but most of all he was always kind and loving and had a way of lighting up a room and making people laugh. Michael's life ended too soon due to mental illness. His family and friends have learned the importance of telling people how they feel in the moment and not waiting.

This award will be given to two graduating seniors who meet the following criteria:

- Overall good person who is always kind to others
- Great sense of humor
- Love of sports
- Musically motivated
- Hardworking student with average grades
- Quality of letter

If you are interested in being nominated for this award, please write a detailed letter to someone who has inspired you to be a better person.
