BRIGANTINE
COMMUNITY SCHOOL
Where Everyone is Someone

October 28, 2026

Dear Parents, Teachers and Scholars:

Recognition of outstanding educators through the Governor's Educator of the Year Program is especially significant because it involves all members of the school community to acknowledge excellence.

We invite parents, teachers and scholars to nominate one educator or one educational services professional in our school for the honor of the school's Educators of the Year. We are seeking staff members who consistently demonstrates the ability to inspire a love of learning in scholars of all backgrounds and abilities. These educators should have knowledge of current educational topics and employ teaching and learning strategies that have impacted student achievement and professional learning at our school.

A nomination sheet can be found under separate cover to this letter. Please nominate one teacher or educational services professional (i.e. Guidance Counselor, Nurse, Child Study Team member) and share your thoughts or reasons for nominating that special person.

Please return your nominations in a sealed envelope to the main office. The envelope should be clearly marked on the outside with:

EDUCATOR OF THE YEAR
ATTENTION: Glenn Robbins, Superintendent/Principal

Nominations should be returned to school on or before Friday, November 20, 2026. A School Selection Committee will review your nominations.

We would like to thank you for taking the time to contribute to the success of this program and supporting the dedicated, innovative, and caring people in the education profession.

Sincerely,

Glenn Robbins
Superintendent/Principal
