Public Safety Committee Meeting
March 8, 2022

- We have one open position for an officer and are currently accepting applications for a police officer through lateral transfers, and accepting regular applications through the end of March.
- Created a presentation for the town hall meeting explaining the facility needs assessment.
- We purchased several tables to facilitate training sessions at the City Hall auditorium. We held one class recently with more scheduled to complete our state mandated requirements for CPT.
- Chief Nicol was re-certified by the OACP and Law Enforcement Foundation as a Certified Law Enforcement Executive. (CLEE). This recertification process is required every three years.
- Final modifications were submitted for the grant for the purchase of additional body cameras and should be approved by the OCJS soon.
- Ch. Nicol participated in the recent donkey basketball fundraiser sponsored by the London FFA.
- Four officers applied for a future Sergeant position and participated in the first phase of a written exam.
