October Programs

After School Kids Connection

Thursdays 4:30p - 5:30p

Ages 5-12. Grown-ups are encouraged to join younger kids or participants needing extra support.

Guatemalan Worry Dolls, October 1

Celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month! Make Guatemalan Worry Dolls (muñecas quitapenas). If you whisper your worries to your dolls, and place them under your pillow, they will take your worries away!

Spider Bots, October 8

Creep out your family with vibrating black spider robots! Just in time for spooky season.

Hip Hop Dance, October 15

High energy Hip Hop taught by guest presenter Rhianna Cranston.

Sugar Skulls, October 22

Celebrate Día de Muertos by decorating your own sugar skull. Learn about this colorful Mexican tradition that honors loved ones, and create a unique skull to take home.

Ghost Stories of the Black West, Thurs 10/29

Join us for a theatrical presentation exploring three mysterious stories from the hidden history of Black people in Colorado and the American West, performed by playwright Jeff Campbell as the traveling storyteller and poet Jedidiah Blackstone. All ages are welcome!

DENVER PUBLIC LIBRARY
PAULINE ROBINSON BRANCH

5575 E 33rd Ave
720-865-0290

Programas de Octubre

Tardes de arte y juego para ninos

Todos los jueves de 4:30p a 5:30p

Para edades 5 a 12 años. Se recomienda a los adultos acompañar a los niños más pequeños o a los participantes que necesiten apoyo adicional.

Muñecas quitapenas guatemaltecas 10/1

Para celebrar el Mes de la Herencia Hispana y Latina, vamos a hacer muñecas quitapenas guatemaltecas. Si les cuentas tus preocupaciones a tus muñecas y las colocas bajo tu almohada, ¡se llevarán tus preocupaciones!

Robots Araña 10/8

¡Asusta a tu familia! Vamos a construir robots araña negros que vibran. ¡Justo a tiempo para la temporada de miedo!

Sesión de baile Hip Hop 10/15

Hip Hop de alta energía con Rhianna Cranston, una artista, educadora, coreógrafa e investigadora interdisciplinaria ubicada en Denver.

Calaveras de azúcar 10/22

Celebrate Día de Muertos by decorating your own sugar skull. Learn about this colorful Mexican tradition that honors loved ones, and create a unique skull to take home.

Ghost Stories of the Black West 10/29

Este programa se ofrece únicamente en inglés. Join us for a theatrical presentation exploring three mysterious stories from the hidden history of Black people in Colorado and the American West, performed by playwright Jeff Campbell as the traveling storyteller and poet Jedidiah Blackstone. All ages are welcome!

DENVER PUBLIC LIBRARY
PAULINE ROBINSON BRANCH

5575 E 33rd Ave
720-865-0290