5.1 This is a meeting in public, not a public meeting. We will not engage in debate or discussion with individuals or the public at large, but rather this is an opportunity for the public to share their thoughts and concerns with the Board. Each person will be allowed up to two minutes to speak and a total of twenty minutes for public comments. This is in accordance with Board policy. Please direct comments to the Board and not the audience. We ask the audience to be respectful of the speakers and to not interrupt or use derogatory language to the presenters while they are speaking.
